LONG DROUTH IS BROKEM

Monday's Rainfall Was a Relief In many Ways

RAIN WAS WELCOMED

The Forest Fires are Mostly Out—Water Has Been Replenished and Vegetation Has Been Refreshed.

COOL WEATHER FOLLOWED STORM

From every part of the state comes word that the long drouth has been broken. The duration of the drouth varied in places from three to ten weeks and the rainfall on Monday has brought relief in many ways. In most places there were only intermittent showers during the day and at others there was a heavy downfall.

Forest fires were mostly all extinguished before nightfall, and as the downfall grew more continuous in the evening they will soon be a thing of the past. The heavy pall of smoke that hung over us for many days has been cleared away and the air is pure and exhilarating.

In the evening heavier showers accompanied by strong wind came upon us, and while not sufficient to perceptiably raise the streams it will help replenish the scant water supply reported from almost everywhere. It was hoped that the rainfall would continue all night and for several days for that matter, but early in the evening the wind changed and for a time a fierce gale blew from the west. The thermometer began to fall soon after the rain set in and the weather this morning was so cool that overcoats were quite comfortable.

The high wind caused the dead leaves to fall from the trees and the streets were covered with them. When the heavy rain fell in the evening the leaves clogged the gutters and sewers and the water overflowed the sidewalks and streets. There is a general fall appearance everywhere today. The rain will be a great boon to the farmers and will greatly aid them in their fall work, there being great fears that the wheat would not germinate and would then rot during the winter.

The rain means the end of the drouth and the amount which will be saved in the forests and crops is inestimable.

Howard Defeated Academy.

While it was generally conceded that the Howard base ball team would defeat the Academy in Thursday afternoon's game the defeat was worse than anticipated. The Howard boys took the first bat and started the game with rapid fire hitting and scored three runs the first inning. They took things easy until the fifth when heavy hitting on their part and loose fielding by the Academy brought Howard six more runs, Roberts having had two three-base hits. The Academy was blanked every inning until the sixth when Sleppy brought in their only run, and he would have been put out at home had not the catcher dropped the ball. Howard made two more runs in the sixth, making them a total of 11 to the Academy's 1. Reitmyer was in the for Howard and pitched an excellent game the Academy being unable to hit. Sleppy pitched seven innings for the Academy and worked hard.

This was the first time the Academy boys have been together and while they played nice ball it could not be expected that they could hold down the Howard team which has been on the field all the season. The attendance at the game was small.

An Evening in China.

On Friday of this week in the M. E. church, under the auspieces of the Epworth League, the Rev. James E. Dunningm formerly a resident of Bellefonte and member of the high school faculty, will present a steroptican view of China, "That sleeping giant of the Orient," and the awakening, from a mission study point. All are cordially invited, especially those interested in mission study and world evangelism. No admission charges. A silver offering will be received to defray expenses. "That all."

You will be interested, entertained and instructed. Let us give Bro. Dunning a large audience and an appreciative reception. In behalf of the Epworth League.

ACADEMY DEFEATED PUNXSY.

State College Takes a Game From Grove City on Saturday.

The Academy boys covered themselves with glory on Saturday when they defeated Punxsutawney High school, one of the strongest school teams in the state, by the score of 10—6. About three of the eleven are students in the High School. The rest of the team have probably attended the school at some time or other. Of course, the visitors knew they had a stiff proposition to solve when they tackled the Academy, but they handled themselves in a very plucky and clever manner and gave the large crowd of spectators all the sport and excitement they had been looking for. The first two minutes of play started the home players and their friends, for Smith while rushing the ball for the Academy fumbled it and before anyone realized what was the matter Blose of the "Punxsy" team had picked up the ball and was off for a touchdown from which a goal was kicked, giving the visitors a most unexpected lead of 6 points to 0 before the game was really started. It was one of those flukes that will happen in the best of games.

The Academy aroused to their best effort by this incident played hard football until the whistle blew and clearly outplayed their opponents in all points of the game. In the second half they scored two touchdowns. Dillon and Smith with the help of the entire team did the trick. Coach Hall is to be congratulated upon his success in handling the Academy team. Every player seems to get into the play. A very pleasing feature of Saturday's game was the fact that all spectators not seated upon the bleachers were required to stand on the far side of the field so that everyone could see every inch of the gridiron from the beginning to the end of the play. This will be the regulation that will be enforced at every game. Two policemen were on hand to see that everything should pass off in an orderly and satisfactory manner. The next important game will be played on Saturday Oct 3 with Altoona High School. Come all to be present.

The line up on Saturday was as follows:

| Bellefonte | Position | Punxsutawney |
|---|---|---|
| Sleepy | left end | Stettler |
| Wickoff (Struble) | left tackle | Jones |
| Louden | left guard | Richardson |
| Boyd | centre | Blose (Capt.) |
| H. Succop (Schenck) | right guard | Wehrle (Bafetto) |
| South | right tackle | Conley (Eberhart) |
| Elsey | right end | Pantall |
| Wright | quarter-back | Dock |
| Dillon | right half back | Seiler |
| Oberlin | left half back | Campbell |
| Smith (Capt) | full back | Rafetto |

Touchdowns, Dillon, Smith, Dock. Goals from touchdowns, Pontall, Reference, Bush. Umpire, Bower. Time of halves, 20 and 15 minutes.

The State College foot ball team defeated the Grove City eleven on Beaver field Saturday afternoon by the score of 30 to 0. Both teams played consistant football and several sensational plays were features of the game. State's line up is not as strong as last year but the game gave the coaches an opportunity to improving on any weakness, and the team did much better work since the Academy gave them a shaking up. Hirschman, Smith, McCleary and Vorhis each had a touchdown, Vorhis kicked four goals. One touchdown was made by Cyphers, McCleary kicking the goal.

Meek—Cross.

A quiet wedding which will prove a surprise to the friends of the contracting parties took place at eleven o'clock Wednesday forenoon in the parlor of the Clearfield house at Lock Haven, when Miss Mary M. Cross, of Waddell, became the bride of Dr. R. H. Meek, a well known young physician of Avis.

Dr. Meek went to Lock Haven in the morning, ostensibly to attend a patient, and went to the Pennsylvania railroad station where he met his prospective bride, who arrived over the Bald Eagle Valley railroad. The couple at once proceded to the Court house where the necessary marriage license was procured, after which they went to the Clearfield house, the proprietor, Irvin Probst being a close friend of the young physician. Awaiting at the hotel, according to pre-arrangement, was the Rev. Mr. Derstine, of Chatham's Run who pronounced the words that made the young couple man and wife.

After partaking of a special dinner prepared under the direction of Mrs. Probst, the newly married couple left on the afternoon flyer for Buffalo and Niagara Falls, where the doctor will combine a honeymoon trip with a much needed vacation. Upon their return in two weeks they will take up their residence at Avis.

THE CENTRE COUNTY FAIR

Wednesday, October 7, will be Children's day and all children under 16 years of age are to be admitted to the grounds free. There will be plenty to interest the children and they will all enjoy the pony race in the afternoon.

The Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad will run special trains on Wednesday and Thursday, leaving Bellefonte at 6 o'clock and running of far as Coburn.

The two morning trains and the 4.44 train west in the afternoon on the Bald Eagle valley will stop at the fair grounds. The morning trains will stop going into Bellefonte and the evening train going out.

On Wednesday, Children's day, the Bellefonte Central will give a half fare rate. On other days of the Fair the rate will be one fare for the round trip.

Everybody is urged to join in and help make this one of the biggest and best fairs in the history of the county. You can help by placing something on exhibition and you can encourage the promoters by your attendance.

Martha E. Walk.

Mrs. Martha E. Walk, a former resident of Osceola, but who since the death of her husband three years ago, has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. John Dutton in South Philipsburg, died Saturday morning at 8 o'clock of diabetes, aged 74 years. She is survived by one son, five daughters and two sisters.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon when services were held in the Methodist church at Osceola. Interment was made in the Osceola cemetery.

SEPTEMBER COURT.

Convened on Monday Morning with Judge Orvis Presiding.

The regular September term of court convened on Monday morning Sept. 28, with Judge Ellis L. Orvis on the bench. Prothonotary A. B. Kimport and Register Earle C. Tuten were in their accustomed places W. H. Fares of Sunbury is the Court Reporter this week.

The first thing in order was the presentation of various motions and petitions. The list of Grand jurors was then called and after being sworn the usual charge was delivered to them by the Court. The Court then appointed L. A. Swartz of Hublersburg, foreman of the Grand Jury.

The report of the constables was then heard after which the list of traverse jurors was called.

The following cases were disposed of during the past week.

Com vs David Thomas, Prosecutor George F. Stine. Charge assaults and battery. Defendant not guilty but pay ⅔ of costs and prosecutor George Stine ⅓ costs.

Com. vs Joseph Koon. Larceny. Defendant appears to open court and waives finding a grand jury and pleads guilty. Sentenced to restore the goods to owner and pay a fine of $10 and costs of prosecution and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for 30 days.

Com vs Edward Thomas. Assault and battery. Prosecutrix, Alice Bullock. Grand jury ignored bill and county to pay costs.

Com vs Joseph Ross and James Reed. Larceny. Defendants plead guilty.

Com vs Wm. Sampsell. Felonious rape. Plead guilty.

Com vs Clayton Boob. F. and B. Prosecutrix Mamie Smith. Plead guilty and usual sentence imposed.

Com vs Howard Nestlerode. Statutary rape and f. and b. Found guilty of f. and b.

Com vs Lemuel Zindel. Assault and battery. Prosecutrix, Aryilla Zindle. Defendant not guilty and costs devided between defendant and prosecutrix.

Com vs South Philipsburg Charge "Nuisance of public duty." This case grew out of an alley between Pullipsburg which was in dispute and used as a sort of dumping ground. Verdict guilty.

Through Freight Service.

A new freight train shedule went into effect Sunday on the Pennsylvania railroad between Tyrone and Sunbury, via Lock Haven. Heretofore all freight trains from Tyrone to Lock Haven were placed in the lower freight yard, when another crew from Williamsport would take the care east. By this new scheme the entire train and the same crew leaving Tyrone will run to Lock Haven on on the Bald Eagle Valley road, then the train will cross over on the P. & E. tracks and run through to Sunbury. The first train was run through Sunday. A fast freight with two engines, came from Sunbury and ran through to Tyrone, and from there will be taken to the west on the main line. This is done to save time and does not require as much handling by different crews as heretofore.

All crews that have been coming to Lock Haven from Sunbury and Tyrone, and stop, laying over her for several hours, will now run through without a stop over.

J. H. Shipley

J. H. Shipley, an aged and respected citizen of Unionville, died at his home in that place about one o'clock Friday morning. Last Saturday while working at the house of David Spotts he fell from a scaffolding and sustained injuries that caused his death at the time stated.

The deceased was born in Union township and was aged just seventy-two years. His parents were natives of England. Mr. Shipley was well known throughout this section of the county and his death is regretted by all.

He is survived by his son Alexander, one brother Barney W. and one sister, Mrs. Susan Blair, all of Unionville. His brother and sister are both aged persons.

The funeral was held at his late home Monday afternoon at 2 30 o'clock and services were conducted by Rev. M. C. Piper of Milesburg. Interment at Unionville.

A Strange Fire

A very singular fire occurred on the farm of D. M. Kline at Axe Mann Saturday night. During the day John Yearick had been there hulling clover with him machine in one of the back fields and had worked until evening. Between ten and eleven o'clock that night a fire was discovered in the vicinity of where they had been hulling clover and an investigation proved that the machine was burning. It is supposed that some person set fire to it as there was no fire about and no other cause could be given.

AGRICULTURAL REPORT

Bumper Crops will Assist In Return of Prosperity

DEPENDENT ON FARMER

Large Crops Leading Factor in Bringing Money from Europe to this Country.

THIS YEAR WILL BRING A SURPLUS

The report of the department of Agriculture on the crop of 1908, is a most remarkable one. With the exception of a few spots here and there, the crop of 1908 is a record breaker; the crop of 1906 was so large that the railroads of the country were taxed to their utmost capacity to handle it, but the crop of 1908 it appears is going to break all records. But a very few people in this country realize what a tremendous factor the great crops play in our prosperity. Beginning with May of every year, our millionaires begin going to Europe and it has been ascertained that they take over to the old country about $200,000,000 of our money. During the summer and fall of every year another $100,000,000 is sent over by European laborers working in this country. Then about October and November of each year, a large number of foreigners who have been working here two or three years return to their European homes and carry in their pocket another $100,000,000. This makes about four hundred million dollars transferred from this country to Europe between May and December of every year. This is a big drain on the money market and last November the tension in money matters was so great that it stopped and we have not yet recovered from the effects of that panic.

Now after this four hundred million dollars is transfered to Europe, the farmer begins to sell his wheat, corn pork, beef and cotton to the European markets and that not only brings back the four hundred million dollars carried over but something like five hundred million dollars additional. Thus the monetary market is thoroughly replenished, so when there is a light crop of farm products we do not get back from Europe so large a sum of money. This shows how thoroughly dependent we are on the farmer for continued proposerity. In view of the tremendous crop of this year, it would seem that better conditions will prevail when the movement of the crop begins.

Mrs. Rebecca Womelsdorf.

At the residence of her son, Hon. P. F. Womeledorff, on South Centre street, Philipsburg, Mrs. Rebecca Almeda Womeledorff passed to her rest at 5:30 Saturday morning from a complication of diseases, largely brought on by a fracture of the hip received from a fall at the Pittsburg exposition last September.

Her husband, Lefevre Womelsdorff, well known by the older residents here, died at the family residence in Pottsville in December, 1891, since which time she has very largely made her home with her children. She was a lady of many excellent qualities, and during her stay there with her son made many warm friends.

She is survived by the following children: A. J. Womelsdorff, Pottsville; W. E. Womelsdorff, Denver, Col.; O. C. Womelsdorff, Womelsdorff, W. Va.; Mrs. Clara Teter, Riverton, N. J.; Mrs. Rebecca A. Wingert, Philadelphia; Hon. P. E. Womelsdorff, Philipsburg; and Mrs. Helen G. Apt, Pittsburg.

Funeral services were held at her son's residence on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Her body was taken to Pottsville on Tuesday morning, over the New York Central, and was interred in the Mount Laurel cemetery at that place.

Justice—Fry.

James I. Justice and Miss Grace V. Fry, both of Valley View, were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage Tuesday evening at eight o'clock by Rev. James B. Stein, D. D. The groom is employed on the Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania railroad and they will make their home in Altoona. They have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous married life.

Rev. James Welch Boal

Rev. James Welch Boal, D. D. who died at Centre Hall on Sunday was born in Centre county July 11, 1838, being aged 70 years, 2 months and 15 days. He graduated from Lafayette college in 1868, with the A. B. degree later receiving the degree of A. M. The degree of D. D. was from another institution, the Princeton Theological seminery class of '71. He was licensed October 6 1870 and ordained in October 1871 by the Presbytery of Huntingdon. During his ministry Rev. Boal served the following churches: Saxton and Yellow Creek, Pa., 1871-75, Washington church, 1875-87; Lycoming church, Williamsport, 1887-93. His health breaking down in the spring of 1893 he returned to Centre Hall to recuperate. In 1894 he accepted a call to Port Carbon and served the church there until 1904 when he again returned to Centre Hall, but keeping in active touch with the work.

During the ministry he served as chairman of the Probationers committee on Theology and Foreign missions, moderator of Freebytery and delegate to general assembly five times.

Dr. Boal was married twice, his first wife being Elizabeth Summington, of Milton, to whom he had one daughter, Anna Elizabeth, who died in 1902. In 1877 he married Miss Elizabeth Rauch of Shippensburg, Pa., who survives him with one son Rev. James H. Boal, of Jasper, Minn.

In the death of Dr. Boal the church has lost one of its able ministers, and one who was always zealous for good works. The charges where he served were the better for his having been among them, his christian spirit having been manifested everywhere and many souls were added to the kingdom through his preaching.

Funeral services were held at Centre Hall Wednesday morning at nine o'clock and the funeral cortege drove to Bellefonte where interment was made.

Brotherhood Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Methodist Brotherhood was held in the lecture room of the church Thursday evening and about forty members were present. At this meeting the Brotherhood was practically reorganized to conform with the general Brotherhood as recommended by the General conference, and other business of importance, including the election of officers, was transacted. The aim of this organization is to effect the mutual improvement of its members by religious, social, literary and physical culture; to promote the spirit and practice of Christian brotherhood; to increase fraternal interest among men, to develope their activity in all that relates to social, civil and industrial betterment, and to build up the church in particular by leading men into communion and fellowship.

The following officers, which will constitute the executive committee, were elected; President, C. C. Shuey; 1st vice president, James K. Barnhart, religious work and social service; 2nd v. p., Morton Smith, Bible and mission study; 3rd. v. p., Clair Seibert, fellowship, 4th v. p., Lawrence McClure, sec. Oscar Gray, treasurer, Milton R. Johnson; chaplain, James H. Rine.

When the business session was concluded the members were invited to the dining room where the committee of entertainment had the tables steaming with a dilicious oyster supper, which was much enjoyed by all as it was the first of the season. The president elect, C. C. Shuey, was chosen toastmaster and gave a very appropriate talk on Brotherhood.

The following responded to his request for remarks. Rev. James B. Stein, Mr. Antrim, of Philadelphia, Dr. Ward, C. N. Meserve, all the officers elect, Neldon Malott and Mr. Casebeer. After a vote of thanke to the committee, Mrs. M. R. Johnson and the Misses Johnson, adjournment was made to meet again on the last Thursday of October.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Repairs are being made in the basement of the association building, consisting of plastering and small carpenter work. The association has decided to install its own heating plant and has let the contract for this work to Albert E. Schad.

An effort is being made to boom the bowling alleys this season so if sufficient patronage is guaranteed in advance, the alleys will be re-leveled, refinished and put in the very best condition. 15 game tickets will be placed on sale at the old price of 50 cents, to cover the expense of pin setters, and as soon as 150 tickets have been subscribed for, work will be started on the alleys. With both Academy and town bowling leagues in prospect a good season is expected.

TRACING CAUSE OW WATER

Other Causes than Lack of Rainfall Are Given

FORESTRY DEPLETION

Is Given by State Commission as One Reason Why the Streams of the State are so Low

OBSERVATIONS ARE BEING MADE

Harrisburg, Sept. 25.—The reckless destruction of forests and the increased use of water for generation of power for the industries are blamed for a share in the low water conditions which have proved so disastrous in Pennsylvania this Summer. Observations made of 130 streams, with special attention paid to their watersheds, by engineers of the State Water Supply Commission have shown that these two causes, with the unusual lack of rainfall, are contributory to the low stage of the streams.

The commission has had men observing conditions in every section of the State for months and the result of their reports was given out today at the Capitol. On the question of rainfall it is shown that in June there has been 5.45 inches less rain at Harrisburg and 4.36 inches less at Pittsburg than is usual during this period, being about 65 per cent of the normal.

This dry weather has caused low water in the streams, the Conemaugh being dry below the intake of the Cambria Steel Company, near Johnstown. At Trenton the Delaware River is .2 foot lower than hitherto recorded.

The gauge on the Susquehanna River at Harrisburg now stands at .2 foot above zero, while the lowest previous reading since 1890 occurred on September 28 and 29, 1900, at which time the gauge read .04.

The North Branch of the Susquehanna River, at Danville, is .5 foot above the lowest water recorded there since 1899.

At Williamsport, the West Branch of the Susquehanna River is .4 foot above the lowest stage recorded since 1895, when the records at that point begin.

The western rivers are likewise exceedingly low, but few of them are below the extreme minimum previously recorded, although often lower than for many years.

The dry weather has lasted probably longer this year than usual, having started early in the Summer, and has caused a longer period of the use of the water stored in reservoirs for tiding over such times.

War on Cigarettes

The various moral agencies of Bellefonte have united for a war against cigarettes. It is the common belief that no school boy can use them and properly pursue his studies, and it is with the school boys that the war will begin. Unless there is quick change in the habits of some of the boys of Bellefonte there will be lots doing in the recently established juvenile court. The law is very stringent in regard to the selling to any one under 21 years of age and the persons who are waging this campaign against the poisonous little cigarette have come to the conclusion that there is no use sending a boy to school and at the same time permitting him to smoke and shrivel up his brain and impairing his chances for success in life. There is no question but that cigarette smoking is the most detrimental habit that can befall a boy or youth. Some one will be on the watch at all times and the first instance of violation of the law will be vigorously prosecuted. Remember boys if you are caught smoking cigarettes you may have to answer for it and perhaps before Judge Orvis. You cannot get a cigarette without violating the law, for if you do not buy them from a dealer some one who is old enough does and they are also guilty. The dealers will be notified of the intentions of the persons who are back of this movement and if violations of the law continue strenuous methods will be brought to bear against the offenders.

The Odd Folks of Indiana.

"Indiana Folks" is a four act pastoral drama with scenes laid in a Southern Indiana county. It is powerful in theme clear in detail and construction, and possesses a heart interest second to that of no other play before the theatre-going public. It is filled with a genuine dry humor and has a love story of intrinsic merit as well as situations which are legitimately sensational. It is a play which pleases mothers, wives, daughters, sweethearts and is presented by Taylor and Day, on a tasteful, costly and elaborate scale and acted by a superb company.

The characterizations in "Indiana Folks" are masterpieces of stage craft. They remind one of a harmonious art gallery, so neatly and artistically are they blended. At the Garman opera house Thursday October 1.

DRAWS DARK PICTURE OF RULE OF RUIN IN VENEZUELA

Writer of Note Describes Results of Castro's Rapacious Regime—Foreign and Home Industry Destroyed and People Starving.

Over the signature of Stephen Bonsal, who writes from first hand knowledge of affairs in Venezuela, the New York Times prints an article on "Cipriano Castro, Cattle Bandit of the Andes." Mr. Bonsal says:

It is undoubtedly a mistake to characterize Castro as a South American type. He is fortunately an exceptional man in any continent.

For many years now Castro has had no relations with the respectable classes among his fellow countrymen, except those which the jailer has with his prisoners and the burglar with those whom he robs. One after another the European and the South American powers have at the instance of self respect been compelled to sever all relations with the "bad man" of Caracas. The representatives of Columbia, Chile, the United States and France recently withdrew, and now even the stolid, long suffering Dutch minister has gone, until today the diplomatic officers remaining in Caracas can easily be transported in a four seated barouche.

Looks Out For Own Profit.

From the day when Castro entered the astonished capital with the (in view of his acts) almost sacrilegious words, "God and the Federation," emblazoned upon his yellow banners he has ruled the country according to the dictates of his personal caprice and for the greatest profit to himself and his Andean comrades.

Several of the half hearted defenders of the Castro regime, and a few such there are, say that all the friction which has resulted in the almost complete ostracism of Castro by the civilized world has arisen over the claims of foreign concession hunters. After all, it is asserted, these men invested their money in the country with full knowledge of the conditions obtaining there, and several of them in advance committed themselves to the position of promising to seek no redress for their wrongs, real or fancied, except at the hands of the Venezuelan courts.

Courts Are Castro's Creatures.

This view of reasoning sounds well but it is not in accord with the facts. When the American concessions which have now been confiscated or are disputed were made there were courts in Caracas which commanded confidence, and Castro has abolished them or changed their personnel without observing the due processes of the law in so doing.

The other charge which the partisans of Castro bring has much more foundation in fact. The accusation is that during the Matos rebellion all the foreigners aided the Matos forces with men, money, arms and information. These charges have never been proved by evidence that would stand scrutiny but here at least there is some basis in fact. In three years Castro had hampered and indeed in many instances as in the asphalt concession, absolutely ruined every enterprise in the land conducted by foreigners.

Matos Failed to Save Country.

Then Matos, an honest man of good antecedents and with the best blood in the country flowing through his veins, made his bid for the presidency in the revolutionary way, the only way, owing to the utter defiance of the electoral laws by the usurping cattle thief, that was open to him. Matos failed because he was not a man of war, and during the last four years Castro has devoted himself to the Indian punishment of those whom he suspects, undoubtedly with some reason, of having abetted his rival.

As a result the commerce of the country has dwindled to nothing; the bountiful crops are not harvested because there is no money in the land; people are starving in what was actually the land of plenty; only the black death travels from deserted port to grass grown Caracas, inflicting the last touch to a gloomy picture.

POINTS OUT DANGER IN USE OF "STERILIZED" COTTON

Investigator Finds Microbes In Material Used For Surgical Purposes.

Startling results are announced of an examination made by the distinguished French savant, M. Nonnotte, of a large number of commercial brands of "aseptic" and "sterilized" cotton. Cultures were made from thirty packages of cotton purchased at random, and in every instance flourishing colonies of microbes were obtained. Two of the packages yielded typhoid bacilli.

In the preparation of cotton for surgical purposes the raw product is carded, washed in soda, bleached with hypochlorites and finally washed in diluted sulphuric acid. After each of these operations the cotton is washed in plain water, and during these baths are introduced the microbes discovered by M. Nonnotte.

Partly as a result of this investigation physicians are turning to the use of the absorbent linen surgical dressing known as "oxolint." This is not only free from the microbic dangers of cotton, but is also more cooling and more absorbent. Physicians and hospitals are now ordering "oxolint" by the ton from the North Brookfield (Mass.) mills where it is manufactured.

The Scientific American in commenting on M. Nonnotte's investigation says, "These results prove that it is unsafe to apply commercial absorbent cotton to wounds or in oedema, erythema and other inflamed conditions of the skin."

LAFOLETE'S ENDORSEMENT

Senator From Wisconsin Pays Glowing Tribute to Taft

FARMERS HEARD HIM

Their National Convention Heartily Applauded His Praise for the Republican Candidate for President

BASED TALK ON BIBLE QUOTATION.

Milwaukee, Wis., September 24.—Wisconsin had a political climax today in the complete and emphatic manner in which United States Senator Lafollette first declared W. H. Taft to be a radical in political ideas and then gave him his own unqualified indorsement.

This is Senator Lafollette's indorsement, beginning with a quotation from the Bible:

"Thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness."

"Ladies and Gentlemen—Such is the great leader that we have with us today. Nature gave him poise, judicial temperament, great force of character, tenacity of purpose.

"His long life in the public service is distinguished for its marked ability, its wisdom, its integrity and patriotism. He has taken advanced ground upon the great issues that engage the profoundest thought of the people of this great country. From a somewhat intimate acquaintance with him for twenty years, I say today that he is progressive in principle. He is equipped most wonderfully by experience. Pause a moment and consider.

The last ten years in the life of the American government are big with events. In all that time, whether in in the Philippines, in Cuba, in Porto Rico, in Panama or in councils of the cabinet, whenever the problems most trying and complex demanded the greatest courage, prudence and tact, he had a large grasp and displayed the highest executive ability. Two presidents in succession summoned to their aid the man who is our honored guest today."

This indorsement was deliverd at Madison before an audience consisting of farmers from all parts of Wisconsin, attending the national farmers' convention. Senator Lafollette was welcomed by an audience that filled the gymnasium of the University of Wisconsin and what he said about Mr. Taft was greeted with hearty applause as was the reply of the candidate, who in turn, before delivering a speech showing his appreciation of the importance of agriculture, paid his compliments to the senator.

State After Incendiaries

The state authorities are making vigorous efforts to run down incendiaries who start forest fires. Commissioner Conkling of the forestry department, is receiving daily reports from the various fires raging in the mountains on the commonwealth's lands and the fire wardens and detectives are working hard to apprehend the vicious or thoughtless people who cause the trouble. If apprehended they will be prosecuted to the limit as there is irreparable damage being done. The long continued drought has made the woods tinder boxes and it is almost impossible to effectively fight the flames unassisted by rain.

A detail of state police have been sent from all four barracks to the aid of the constables and wire wardens. Nearly every county in the central part of the state has suffered serious loss from forest fires during the past two weeks.

A Strong Order

The annual session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows began at Denver, Col., Tuesday.

"This is the strongest fraternal order on the continent," said Grand Sire Conway in an address at the opening session. "It has 1,800,000 member, and has not stopped growing. It has forty-four homes for the aged and indigent, and homes and schools for dependent children.

"The order has an annual income of $15,000,000, of which $6,000,000 is spent in relief and a similar sum for lodge expenses. This leaves a balance each year of $3,000,000 which is added to reserve fund that now amounts to $50,000,000."

A pleasing, good, high grade, truly flavored, amber colored cup of coffee can be had—and without the real Coffee danger, or damage to health—by simply using Dr. Shoop's new substitute, called "Health Coffee". Pure, wholesome, toasted cereals, malt, nuts, etc. make Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee both healthful and satisfying. No 20 to 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute" says Dr. Shoop. If served as coffee, it's taste will even trick an expert. Test it and see. Sold by Zeller and Son.

You can get the Summer resort news and also a daily page for women. It is truly the one great home newspaper. Hand your order in at once, for this offer is good only a short time. Do it now, for this is the only way to keep posted.

Accused of Embezzlement.

Prothonotary Harry S. Meyer, of Lycoming county, was arrested in Williamsport Monday afternoon, charged with the embezzlement of $1,800 from the Casulty Company of America, for which he acted as local agent prior to his election to the office of prothonotary last fall.

The defendant was arraigned before Alderman Stead, where he waived a hearing and furnished $1,000 bail for appearance at court.

After his arrest Mr. Meyer made a statement alleging that the charge was without foundation. He said there had been a disputed account between himself and the company, and that he had tendered the company all that was due them, but they had declined to accept the same.

Started Fires for Revenge

James Borham of Mifflin was arrested near Lewisburg Wednesday charged with starting a number of fires in the woods in Jack's narrows. The incendiary was apprehended by three crippled fishermen who bound him and marched him six miles to to the county jail. He gave as his motive for the crime a desire to get even with persons in Lewistown who had refused to give him work.

The fire was started in a section of the mountain where hundreds of cords of paper wood was cut last winter during the present summer, and the mountain side is littered with dead branches underbrush and dry bark, which proved a veritable tinder box for the fire.

Robbed an Old Lady.

Masked robbers entered the home of Mrs. Maggie Islett, an aged lady living near Spruce Creek Wednesday morning and with threats of all sorts compelled her to give them all the money and valuables in the house, and after making her promise to give no alarm made their escape. Mrs. Islett is 78 years of age and lives alone. During the night she heard a noise and was about to get out of bed when two masked men grabbed her. With revolvers pointed at her they demanded to know where the money of the house was. She informed them that there was but five or six dollars in the house and gave them instructions where to find it. They searched the whole house and found the money and a gold watch, which they took and compelling the old lady to get back in bed left.

Trout Perishing.

Many trout out along the head-waters of Black Moshannon and Six Mile Run are said to be perishing on account of the low water. Constable Isaac Bower, who returned yesterday afternoon from Black Moshannon, where he and others had been fighting forest fires, reports that yesterday from little pools in a small stream that empties into Black Moshannon he and his helpers took out 620 trout, from 5 to 9 inches in length, and placed them in a spring to keep them from perishing, as many of them seem to be doing. Some precautions ought surely to be taken all the trout streams, now so low, to protect the speckled beauties, and action in this connection should not be delayed.—Philipsburg Journal.

Were Rounding up Cattle

Three men have been arrested at DuBois charged with being members of a gang which has stolen more than 200 head of cattle and disposed of their carcasses to butchers. Thousands of head of live stock are pastured in the mountains in the summer.

It is alleged that Frank Hoover, Isaac Hoover and Edward Sallada, who were arrested after disposing of three heifers made a practice of "rustling" fat cattle butchering them in isolated spots and taking the meat and hides at night to nearby towns and selling them. Cattlemen estimate the losses at $10,000. It is believed that the prisoners are only tools and that prominent men are concerned in the conspiracy.

The Woman's Home Companion for Oct.

An important article in the October Woman's Home Companion is entitled "Seeking Shelter in New York," "Five dollars in my purse, a few plain clothes in my bag, an ordinary school education behind me, and New York, with its boundless opportunities, ahead of me," that is the beginning of the adventures in New York of Lucy Green. They are real adventures of a real girl, who tells her story to readers of the Companion.

This October issue is particularly rich in fiction, having stories by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Harrison Rhoades, Octava Thanet, Nellie McClung, Margaret Sutton Briscoe, and especially good stories by Irving Bacheller and Juliet Wilbor Tompkins.

There is perhaps no more important question to the average American than the one of owning or renting a home. The results of the most careful investigation and the experiences of thousands of Americans are given in a series of articles on this subject, which begins in the October number.

Of special interest are Kellogg Durland's intimate picture of the life of the Tsaritsa of Russia, and Dr. Woods Hutchinson's article, "Are Babies Moral?"

The fashion department with the Latest Fall Fashions is full of valuable suggestions.

Bees Laxative Cough Syrup always brings quick relief to coughs, colds, hoarseness, whooping-cough and all bronchial and throat trouble. Mothers especially recommend it for children Pleasant to take, gently laxative. Sold by C. M. Parrish.

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequaled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

Postmasters to Lecture.

Postmaster General Meyer has made an order which promises beneficial results. The postmasters of the country have been directed to confer with their local school authorities as to the practicability and desirability of delivering to the school children short talks on the postal service.

The design is to inform the pupils of the scope of its operations. The methods of delivering the mails, classification of mail matter and registry and money order systems. Incidentally they are to make known plans for betterment, such as the establishment of postal savings banks and the extension of the parcel's post.

Wherever it may be impracticable for postmasters to deliver lectures they are to furnish the necessary information to the school supervisors so as to equip the regular teachers. It is the postmaster general's expectation that the school children will be useful to the postal service in seeing that letters are properly and plainly addressed.

That there is necessity for action of the kind is shown by the volume of business transacted by the dead letter office. During the last year 13,145,172 pieces of mail matter was sent there because the post offices were unable to read them.

Hi Henry is Dead.

Hi Henry, the famous minstrel man, who was stricken with paralysis at his home near Boise, Idaho, recently is dead. He was born at Gowanda, N. Y., and later moved to Renovo where he was employed in the shops for some time. In his early days he was musically inclined and soon became proficient on the cornet, being considered one of the best virtuosos in the United States. He organized a minstrel show and proposered from the very start of his career in minstrelsy, having amassed a fortune before he retired two years ago. His minstrels visited Bellefonte a number of times and he was always greeted with large audiences. He had a number of friends in this place who regret to hear of his demise.

Reviving State Fair Scheme.

An effort is being made to revive the proposition to establish a permanent State fair in Harrisburg to hold annual exhibitions, and the matter is being discussed all over the state. At the last session of the legislature Representative Creasy, of Columbia, at the instance of the State Grange, the State Fruit Growers' association, the State Live Stock Breeders' association and kindred organizations, introduced a bill appropriating $200,000 for the establishing of a state fair in the state, and it was the general opinion at the time that if the bill passed the fair would be located at Harrisburg because of its central position. The bill, however did not get out of the approbriation committee, where it died.

—From THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER.

Horseback Honeymoon Trip.

Immediately following the ceremony, Miss Jean Condron, daughter of Joseph B. Condron, a contractor of Hollidaysburg and Samuel A. Calvin who were married Wednesday, started out on horseback on an old-fashioned and romantic honeymoon trip to Washington, D. C.

Their horses are thorobreds, and were well eqipped with modern saddles and plethoric old-fashioned saddlebags. The trip is expected to consume a week and the pair will follow the route of the National Turnpike and stop over night at the old road taverns.

The marriage ceremony was performed at the family mansion in the presence of the members of the immediate families by the Rev. William Miller, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

The bridegroom is an artist and was educated in Paris. He is a grandson of the late Congressman Samuel Calvin, and a son of Matthew Calvin of Hollidaysburg.

Filter Plants in Streams.

Game Warden Alberts has been doing some good work in this vicinity of late regarding the pollution of the streams inhabited by game fish. He has arrested several of the representatives of the different tanning companies and has brought them to time. A meeting was arranged for and held at Ridgway, with the head men of the Elk Tanning company which controls forty tanneries in Pennsylvania. At this meeting the officers of the corporations arranged to install whatever type of filtering plant the state fisheries department required. Plans for these filters are now being considered and will be put in either during the fall or spring. Each filter plant will cost about $4,000 and will effectually cleanse all liquids used in tanneries. The refineries will also be gone after as well as the acid works and they will be forced to keep their refuse out of the streams.—Warren Times.

Some Famous Sallies.

Great men have been guilty of punning, and some of the most famous of these sallies have come down in history. There is something melancholy about the pun of Dr. Thomas Browne, who, having unsuccessfully courted a lady and being challenged to drink to her health, as had been his wont, replied, "I have toasted her many years, but I cannot make her Browne, so I will toast her no longer."

Sydney Smith's jest at the expense of Mrs. Grote had the salt of malice in it. She was famed for ill taste in dress, and as one day she swept by in an extraordinary headdress Smith pointed her out to a friend, saying, "That is the origin of the word 'grotesque.'"

Mrs. Grote, however, had her revenge. Sydney Smith's daughter married a Dr. Holland. When the latter was knighted some one mentioned his wife as Lady Holland. "Do you mean Lord Holland's wife?" asked the listener.

"No," replied Mrs. Grote. "This new Holland, whose capital is Sydney."

When the barrister Campbell married Miss Scarlett his friend explained his absence from court by telling the judge that Campbell was suffering from a bad attack of Scarlett fever.

Ancient Chains.

"Some authorities," says an English writer, "give the Britons credit for originating the cable chain because Julius Caesar is recorded as having been unable to cut the cables of the Gaul's vessels, 'as they were made of iron.' This may have been a chain in the present acceptation of the term, but it is doubtful, because the first patent for chainmaking was obtained in England in 1634 by a blacksmith named Philip White. The patent was for fourteen years, and in consideration of it White had to pay £5 in lawful money yearly at the exchequer, Westminster, att the Feast of the Blessed Virgyn and Saint Michell the Archangell by even and eual process.'

"His patent is described as follows: 'A way for the wearing of shipps with iron chaynes by finding out the true heating (pre,pareing and tempering of Iyron for that (pur)pose and that he hath nowe attayned to the true vse of the said chaynes and that the same wilbe for the great saveing of cordage and safety of shippers and will redound to good of our Comon Wealth.'"

As Others See Us.

"Mem-sahib," asked a young East Indian girl of her English mistress, "why do you wear those sad colors? I don't like them."

"I am in mourning, Lattoo. It is the custom of English ladies."

"But black is the color of night, mem-sahib, and yet you believe that when you die you go to heaven at once. Then why not be glad for your friends who die and wear colors such as we see in birds and flowers and falling water when the sun shines? God doesn't make your colors. Ah, well, Christians are strange people!"—From "The Indian Alps."

A Woman's Country.

The Frenchwoman may not be so classical in form or outline as many of England's beautiful women, but she has undoubtedly the gift of charm, and by virtue of this elusive, tantalizing quality she has for centuries bewitched and enthralled all the men of her country. France today is the most woman ridden country and also the most peaceful, prosperous and contented. The women rule by charm.—Stormy Petrel.

The Old Master.

Mistress (to new servant)—I must impress upon you, when you go to the dining room, not to try to get the dirt off the 'Old Master' with a wet rag, but use a dry, soft cloth only. Servant—Mercy on us, marm; be I to wash the master?—London Tatler.

Falls Head First Into a Thresher.

Tripping over some obstruction, Abraham Gulick plunged headforemost into the mechanism of a threshing machine near New Brunswick, N. J., and was killed. Gulick, who was a prosperous farmer, had volunteered to aid his neighbor, John McDonald, to thresh a crop of wheat. While feeding the grain into the machine he turned to look at McDonald, took a step forward, tripped and fell head foremost into the machine. The horror-stricken man working with him stood helplessly by. Slowly Gulick was drawn into the machine, screaming. He was crushed and torn beyond recognition.

Father Sees Son Cut In Two.

Run down by a freight train at Harrington, Del., and cut in half before the eyes of his father, the seven-year-old son of Jacob Tibbett was instantly killed when he stepped out of the way of the Perryville train and on the track along which a local freight train was backing. The train struck the boy, and although the engineer had stopped the train before it went ten feet, the back wheels of the last car passed over the body, cutting it in two at the waist. The father, who was running the locomotive of another train on a nearby track, saw the accident and fainted.

Hughes Renominated.

Charles E. Hughes, of New York, was nominated by the New York Republican state convention by an overwhelming majority on the first ballot, to succeed himself as the governor of New York. He received 827 votes out of a possible 1009, as against 151 for James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Livingston county, speaker of the state assembly, and 31 for former Congressman John K. Stewart, of Montgomery.

Chinese Athletics.

The Chinese have always had athletic exercises of a sort in which they have rather prided themselves, though none ever seem to have taken such a hold on the nation as ours have on us during the last century or so. They have plenty of stories of strong men capable of wielding extraordinary weapons, of bending wondrous bows or of lifting heavy weights, etc.

Even within the last few years feats of archery were done before an officer could get his commission in the army, and in almost any village there is a bamboo with a pierced stone at either end to test the strength of the rising generation in lifting. But there was nothing of regular athletic training, except for a few wrestlers perhaps, before foreigners came.—Shanghai Mercury.

A Strong Hint.

They had met for the first time since their schooldays and were telling each other of their professional careers.

"And how did you come to leave the stage?" asked one.

"I had a hint that I was not suited for it."

"I see. The little birds told you, eh?"

"Well, no; not exactly. But they might have been birds had they been allowed to hatch."

American Success.

The reason of the enormous success of the Americans, the reason of their growing wealth and power on the continent of Europe, is their willingness to take risks. They are brave and are prepared to shoulder responsibility. When a merchant fails in business, banks are found to advance him money to put him on his feet again. Not so in England. A bankrupt is a pariah; the banks will not give him the least help. His failure creates a terrible fuss.—Frenchman in Pall Mall Gazette.

Game Reported Plentiful

Old smoothbores, breech loaders and rifles are being taken from their rack and relieved of the dust and rust which has gathered during their period of inactivity, for the day of the hunter is at hand.

The hunting season in Pennsylvania opens on October 1st and already there has been a marked increase of activity in the stores where guns and ammunition are sold. Cases holding leaded shells, containing everything from the fine No. 10 birdshot to the No. 2 buckshot, have replaced the display of tennis balls and piles of brown khaki and corduroy hunting suits occupy the counter where was displayed the hammock and stock of base balls.

From the game sections of the state it is reported that birds are not only more plentiful than in many years but that they are in better condition. Last year there appeared to be an epidemic among the game birds from which hundreds died. The approaching season will be a fair one for squirrels, while rabbits, the season for which will be ushered in October 15 will be very plentiful.

The foliage, however is still very heavy in the woods, making it difficult to follow up a covey of flushed birds but a heavy frost or two will very materially change conditions.

W. B. Reduso CORSETS
The Perfect Corset for Large Women
It places over-developed women on the same basis as their slender sisters. It tapers off the bust, flattens the abdomen, and absolutely reduces the hips from 1 to 5 inches. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.
New W. B. Reduso No. 770. For large tall women. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.
New W. B. Reduso No. 771. Is the same as No. 770, but is made of light weight white batiste. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.
New W. B. Reduso No. 772. For large short women. The same as No. 770, except that the bust is somewhat lower all around. Made of white coutil, hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.
New W. B. Reduso No. 773, is the same as No. 772, but is made of light weight white batiste. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

Ask any dealer anywhere to show you the new W. B. "hip-subduing" models, which will produce the correct figure for prevailing modes, or any of our numerous styles which are made in such a variety as to guarantee perfect fit for every type of figure.
From $1.00 to $3.00 per pair.

EDITORIAL.

THE pay-as-you-enter cars also suggest seats after you enter.

IT is not necessary that the canned oratory should be guaranteed under the pure food act.

EVIDENTLY Chicago doesn't bury its dead if one may judge from the number who voted at the recent primaries in that city.

THE dirt is flying so lively in the campaign now that nobody seems to care for the latest news from the big ditch in Panama.

A HUSTON, Texas preacher says "There is too much animal in us all." However, there is not likely to be so much if the price of meat goes up another notch.

WAR ON TUBERCULOSIS.

Governor Stuart has done a service to both this State and its citizens by his statement at the opening of the anti-tuberculosis conference of the work already done and planned by Pennsylvania in the cure prevention, and suppression of his malady.

Few realize that this Commonwealth has made appropriations on a scale larger than any other State and equaled by few countries anywhere. The appropriation of $500,000 a year already made by the State begins its work on an adequate scale. This is already supplemented by grants to special institutions like the White Haven Sanitarium. These appropriations are but a beginning.

The next Legislature will add to them. Without rapid increase and with no undue outlay, Pennsylvania will be expending $1,000,000 a year in this necessary, salutary and beneficent work. The State will soon have the best equipped "village" of detached houses for consumptives anywhere. It is already foremost in its sanitaria, State aided, but under their own management, and admitting free patients.

These facilities steadily increase. The State forest reservation gives unrivaled facilities for camps. Philadelphia has already begun its share of the work and will before long be caring for its own as it should. The Phipps Institute, the centre of scientific inquiry into the disease, also began dispensary service in that city on a large scale. The city and State have supplemented this, though the work of the former calls for expansion and has but barely opened.

MORE SCHOLARS THAN EVER

Reports from all over the country show that the attendance at public schools, private academies, colleges and universities is not only greater than ever, but larger proportionately than the increase in population. This is gratifying, considering that the hard times of last year have boane heavily upon so large a portion of the public.

It is gratifying because it shows an awakened interest in education in all its branches; because it shows that so many persons have learned that in the battle of life the fittest survives. It would be idle to say that school education is the sole equipment for the struggle, but it is the most available and for almost everyone the best. Some men and women have struggled to fame and success with little study of books, but almost all need knowledge as a foundation and the discipline which comes from school training.

It is gratifying because it shows that while people may do without some things cheerfully, they will not stint their children in getting every advantage open to them. They will sacrifice every thing for their childrens good.

Step in line for the local candidates.

Vote for R. B. Taylor for assembly. He is a self-made man and will be an able representative for Centre county in the next legislature.

MANY young men of the present time complain that the opportunities are not as great for a young man now as they formerly were. This is a mistake as there has never been a time in the history of the world, and especially of this country when there was as many chances for the young man who wishes to apply himself as there are at this time. Youth is the great requirement for success, and the man of advanced years, who is only successful when age has commenced to bend his form and halt his step, wins out against a great handicap. Ask John D. Rockefeller what he would give to be twenty-five years of age and in good health and the answer would no doubt startle you There are plenty of opportunities at the present time, but the trouble is that many of the young men of the day are standing around waiting for something to turn up when they should be out turning it up.

OLD FASHIONED CANVASS IS ON

Andrews For a Campaign of Vim and Patriotism.

MARCHERS AND GLEES FIGURE

Recruits Called For From the Rank and File of the Great Army of Pennsylvania Republicans, and a Prompt Response Is Anticipated All Along the Line, With Victory In November Assured.

[Special Correspondence.]
Philadelphia, Sept. 29.

Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, as chairman of the Republican state committee, has sounded the slogan to Republicans of Pennsylvania for the inauguration of a campaign for the closing days of the state canvass which must appeal to every stalwart Republican in the land.

The colonel, himself a veteran of the Fremont campaigners in the cause of true Republicanism, has called for a revival of the spirit of the olden days, of a recruiting of the Republican hosts as in the memorable struggles in which the "Wide Awake" clubs, by their partiotism and party fervor, stirred the nation from end to end, and for an expression of sentiment which shall be emphasized by bringing "Old Glory" to the front as the Republican forces march on to victory.

Colonel Andrews has just addressed the following letter to each of the chairmen of the Republican county committees throughout Pennsylvania:

A Call to Action.

"Dear Sir—We have reached a period in the national campaign when party lines are tightly drawn, the issues well defined, and the voters are rallying around the banners of their respective parties.

"Republicans of Pennsylvania have reason to be proud of their candidates and all can consistently and cordially endorse the platform upon which they have been nominated

"It devolves upon the county chairmen, in the closing days of the canvass, to marshal the Republican hosts in their respective bailiwicks, and I suggest that we have an old-fashioned canvass, along the lines of the campaign of 1860, when the young men of the country gathered in "Wide Awake clubs," supplying at their own expense their uniforms and making demonstrations at all political meetings in their neighborhood.

"What was done in 1860 can be done now.

"The country is fully as patriotic today.

"In later years contributions have been depended upon to meet expenses, but in the old times each man not only contributed his time, but also his share of the expenses of the meetings which were held.

"These thoughts are suggested by the calls upon the Republican state committee for financial assistance to provide for meetings, with which it is not possible to comply. This prompts the inspiration to recall the faith of the fathers of the Republican party, who, without outside aid of any kind, rallied everywhere and overthrew the Democratic party, then strongly entrenched in power, and elected the immortal Lincoln, through whom the Union was saved.

"What was done in 1860, I repeat, can be done now.

"In this day, when in Philadelphia and Pittsburg and elsewhere the past is being recalled in Founders' Week and like celebrations, it is fitting that an old-fashioned marching and singing campaign be inaugurated to rouse the voters throughout the length and breadth of the state.

To Have Campaign Glee Clubs.

"Additional interest will be given to the meetings in many localities if a musical program shall be arranged in connection with the practical work of expounding the principles of the party and discussing the live issues of the campaign.

"In such cases, you are advised to enlist the services of one or more soloists, and, where possible, a quartet or glee, to intersperse the proceedings with musical selections.

"For this purpose there will be forwarded to you a compilation of campaign songs, written to popular tunes, which can be distributed among the audiences that all may join in the singing.

Anthem For Pennsylvania.

"In connection with this collection of songs is presented the new state anthem, 'Pennsylvania,' in the chorus of which all loyal Pennsylvanians can readily unite.

"It was given with great success at the recent gathering of the State League of Republican clubs at Wilkes-Barre, and the convention adopted a resolution endorsing a proposition to make it the 'Official Song of the Keystone state.' The aim of the composer is to give what has long been lacking, a song that shall be typical of the commonwealth, and which shall become as affectionately associated with Pennsylvania and Pennsylvanians, wherever they may be, as have 'Maryland, My Maryland,' 'My Old Kentucky Home' and like state songs to the citizens of the states with which they are respectively identified.

"Let this and the songs lauding the party and its candidates be sung upon all appropriate occasions.

"Get the 'First Voters,' those who will, in November next, cast their first presidential vote, to form in line and march to the meetings, if only with a fife and drum at their head, and with 'Old Glory' always carried proudly in the van.

"Let us have enthusiastic, patriotic Republican rallies everywhere and roll up an unprecedented majority for our gallant standard-bearers, Taft and Sherman, and the full Republican ticket.

"Let the spirit of the days of Lincoln pervade the entire party, and a record-breaking victory will be the result. Respectfully,

"WESLEY R. ANDREWS,
"Chairman."

There was a very successful gathering of active Republicans from all parts of the state here yesterday, in attendance upon the meeting of the Republican state committee, which was called primarily to fill a vacancy upon the electoral ticket, but which was principally valuable for the opportunity it afforded men of the several congressional and senatorial districts to get together to confer upon plans for the closing days of the canvass.

Senator Penrose met the committeemen and gave them very encouraging reports, as a member of the national committee, about the outlook throughout the country for Republican victory in November.

Dangers of Bryanism.

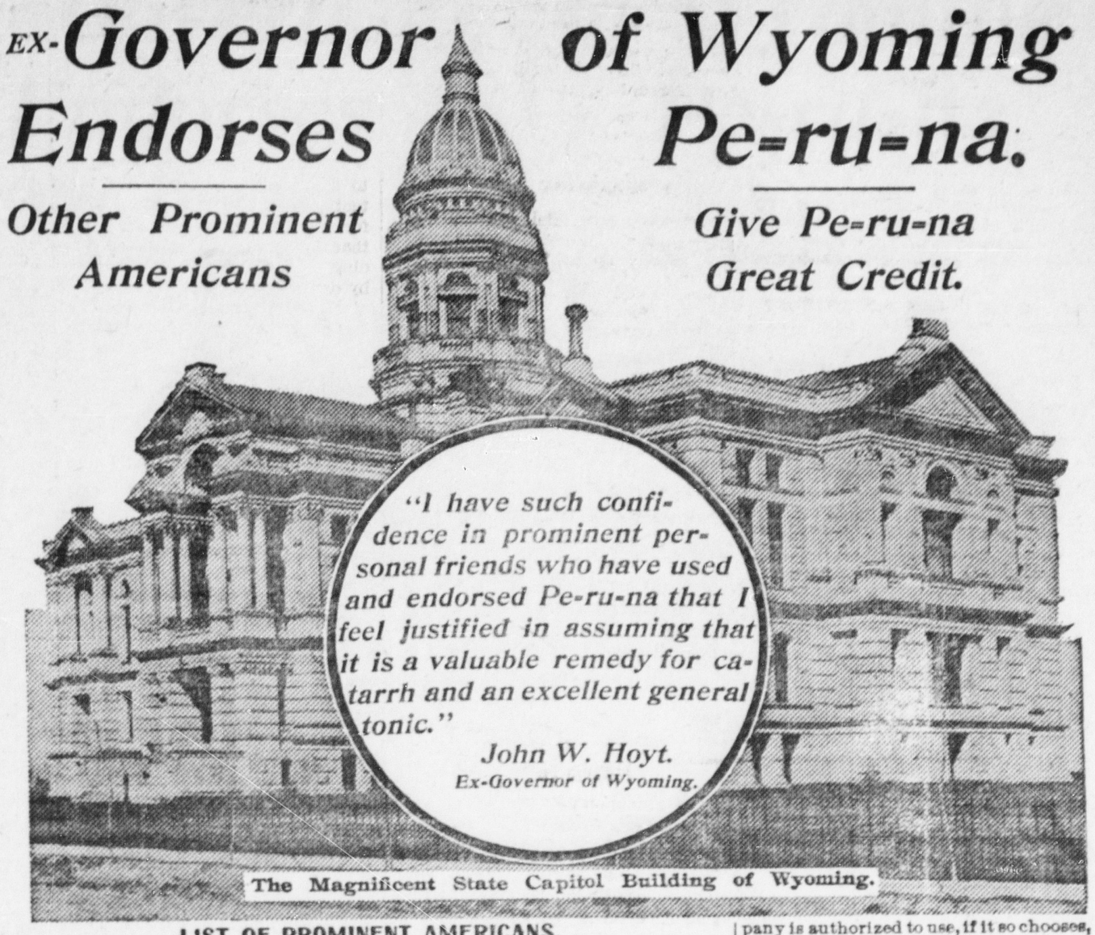
Will Mr. Bryan please inform all the people to what particular class of people he refers when he assumes the people do not rule? Is it the poorer classes and those largely infected with socialistic and anarchistic ideas and theories with whom Bryanism greatly sympathizes, professionally at least, or is it the farmers, merchants, manufacturers and the great national railroads and their employes? Were Bryanism (with his superficial and wildcat ideas of banks, currency and finance; his hostility to all corporations and his determination to destroy all manufacturing industries, which he denominates as trusts, by inaugurating another Gorman and Wilson tariff bill for revenue only, and strike down the protective principle) to dominate the country, surely the majority of the people would not rule. The administration, with his extraordinary views of his powers as president, and with his vagaries and chimerical theories of government, would be in a state of chaos; and the collapse of all industries, of the farmer and the wage earner, would be such as to cause a further trend toward socialism and anarchism.—Keystone Gazette.

EX-Governor of Wyoming Endorses Pe-ru-na.

Other Prominent Americans Give Pe-ru-na Great Credit.



"I have such confidence in prominent personal friends who have used and endorsed Pe-ru-na that I feel justified in assuming that it is a valuable remedy for catarrh and an excellent general tonic."
John W. Hoyt.
Ex-Governor of Wyoming.

The Magnificent State Capitol Building of Wyoming.

LIST OF PROMINENT AMERICANS.

Gen. W. H. Parsons, Confederate Army, ex-State Senator, Texas.
Col. Bailey, of Washington, D. C., Labor Organizations and U. V. L.
Col. Patten, of Washington, D. C., Military and Masonic Orders.
Hon. R. S. Ryan, of Alaska, Ex-Member English House of Parliament.
Congressman Cale, of Alaska, well known on Pacific Slope.

Gen. W. H. Parsons.

Gen. W. H. Parsons is ex-State Senator and ex-Special Judge of the Supreme Court of Texas, also Brigadier General in Confederate Army. In a recent letter from 925 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C., this prominent gentleman says:

"Upon the recommendation of personal friends and many strong testimonials as to the efficacy of Peruna in the treatment of the numerous symptoms of the la grippe with which I have been afflicted for four months past, I have been induced to undergo a treatment with this justly celebrated formula. I feel a decided change for the better after using it only one week. It is especially good in toning up the stomach and has had a decided effect upon my appetite. I therefore feel much encouraged that I am on the road to complete restoration.

"My numerous friends in Texas, where I have had the honor to command a brigade of her Veteran Cavalry in a four years' war, may accept this voluntary testimonial to the merits of Peruna as a sense of obligation on my part for its wonderful efficacy."

Col. Wm. Bailey.

William Bailey, 58 I St., N. E., Washington, D. C., Past Col. Enc. No. 69, Union Veteran Legion, and prominently identified with many of the great labor protective associations in Chicago and New York, and Secretary of one of the largest associations in the former city, had for nearly thirty years been afflicted with kidney troubles.

Within a short period he has been persuaded to try Peruna, and his present healthy condition is attributed to his judicious use of that great remedy. Washington climate is notoriously bad for kidney and liver troubles, yet by a judicious use of the remedy he is now quite cured and in excellent physical condition.

This brief statement of facts, without exaggeration or hyperbole, appears to tell the whole story, which the Peruna Company is authorized to use, if it so chooses, believing, as I do, that by so doing it will be for the general good.—Wm. Bailey.

Col. C. L. Patten.

Col. C. L. Patten, 509 T St., N. W., Washington, D. C., a Lieutenant in the Old Guard, an exclusive organization composed of soldiers of distinction who fought in the civil war, and a Thirty-second degree Mason, writes as follows:

"I have used Peruna, and desire to recommend your remedy as an invigorating spring tonic; also one of the best remedies that I ever tried for coughs, colds and catarrhal complaints."

Hon. R. S. Ryan.

Hon. R. S. Ryan, now residing in Nome, Alaska, was formerly a member of the English House of Parliament, and Secretary to the late Irish patriot, Charles Stewart Parnell. His Washington address is New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C. He writes: "I have used Peruna and can recommend your remedy as a very effective cure for colds and catarrhal complaints."

Hon. Thomas Cale.

Hon. Thomas Cale, elected to Congress from Alaska, is well known on the Pacific slope, where he has resided. His Washington address is 1312 9th St., N. W., Washington, D. C. He writes: "I can cheerfully recommend Peruna as a very efficient remedy for coughs and colds."

The pennant this congressional district should win in November is a Republican seat in the National house of Representatives. Vote for Charles F. Barclay for Congress.

THE Japanese who were discharged from a Kansas city packing house because they were too light might see if there isn't an opening for them as conductors on an airship line.

WHILE we of the East have been sweltering in midsummer heat many railroad men and passengers on the Northern Pacific Railroad in Montana are dead or dying as the result of a wreck in a snow storm.

William E. Hurley the Republican candidate for Sheriff is now canvassing the county. We are not ashamed to have him show himself to the people as he makes a good impression wherever he goes. He will be the next Sheriff of Centre County, mark our prediction.

Earl C. Tuten has made as fine a record as Register of Centre county as any man who has ever held that office. Having given such good report of himself, the people will do well to retain him in office and continue the excellent service he has given during the last three years.—Keystone Gazette.

THE proposition to hold a state fair in Pennsylvania meets with the hearty approval of the farmers and the state may be asked soon to finance the project. It is believed that a state fair could be run at a profit of from twenty-five thousand of thirty thousand dollars annually. If the fair were to be held in the central part of the state there is no doubt that it would prove a success from the start. Pennsylvania should not be behind other states in establishing a state fair. This state is too rich in agriculture to neglect this opportunity.

A PASTOR in a Pennsylvania town has been compelled to resign his charge on account of an attack he made upon the powder puff used by the feminine contingent of his congregation. Hot shot on the part of the women followed the attack, and the explosion which followed shook the church to its foundations. The pastor will leave presumably for parts where powder puffs are not popular—if he can find such a locality.

Indiana Folks

In the strong and successful pastoral drama "Indiana Folks" which will be seen at the Garman opera house Thursday evening, the varying human emotions are beautifully portrayed. The play is not a talky sermom, but is a drama of today, full of life, fire, action and possessed of a strong heart and love interest.

No one can forget old Squire Dodson, Jim Long, Seth Sturgess or Nora Dodson, Annie Pierce or Polly Jenkins. They are all characters so strong and so indelinitely well drawn that they linger long in the memory. "Alabama" with its beautiful love scenes and Southern atmosphere is an idyl of Alabama. "Indiana Folks" with its unique characterizations is an idyl of Indiana, presented under the management of Taylor and Day.

—Rally day at the Methodist church on Sunday proved to be an interesting occasion for all, there being a good attendance at all the services. The special efforts in preparing for a day of inspiration and help along all lines of christian activity were rewarded with a good attendance and a lively interest by all the members. Excellent music was a feature of the services and the special singing by Mr. Waring was appreciated by all. All the services of the day were very helpful to the members and had a tendency to arouse increased interest in the Master's work.

The Horse's Power of Smell.

The horse will leave musty hay untouched in his bin, however hungry. He will not drink of water objectionable to his questioning sniff or from a bucket which some odor makes offensive, however thirsty. His intelligent nostril will widen, quiver and query over the daintiest bit offered by the fairest of hands, with coaxings that would make a mortal shut his eyes and swallow a nauseous mouthful at a gulp. A mare is never satisfied by either sight or whinny that her colt is really her own until she has a certain nasal certificate to the fact. A blind horse, now living, will not allow the approach of any stranger without showing signs of anger not safely to be disregarded. The distinction is evidently made by his sense of smell and at a considerable distance. Blind horses, as a rule, will gallop wildly about a pasture without striking the surrounding fence. The sense of smell informs them of its proximity.—Horse and Stable.

He Asked.

He had been courting a girl for a long time. It happened on Sunday night after church. They were sitting on the sofa, and she looked with ineffable tenderness into his noble blue eyes.

"Tom," she murmured, with a tremor in her voice, "didn't you tell me once you would be willing to do any act of heroism for my sake?"

"Yes, Mary, and I gladly reiterate that statement now," he replied in confident tones.

"Well, Tom, I want you to do something really heroic for me."

"Speak, darling! What is it?"

"Ask me to be your wife. We've been fooling long enough."

Boys and Girls of Arabia.

A traveler in Arabia who passed a year among the people tells that he did not see a single doll in the hands of a girl nor observe one playing at "keeping house" in any way. Neither did the traveler notice an Arabian boy playing at ball or marbles.

Speaking with a grave sheik on the subject, the latter said to the stranger, "You must be queer people in the west to let your young folks get their hands dirtied in sport!"

The Arabian lads, it seems, walk about trying to look like little men as much as they can when not engaged in acts of duty or in learning essential things.

A HINDOO'S TOILET.

Curious Morning Scene in an East Indian Compound.

All over the compound, from verandas and "go-downs," forms are seen rising from sleep, each one "wrapping the drapery of his couch about him," with no idea in doing so of conforming to any standards urged upon the attention of the race by Mr. Bryant, but for the simpler if less poetic reason that these draperies constitute his bedding by night and his nether garment by day. But do not make the mistake of thinking that because the requirements of the Hindoo's costume are scanty his toilet is therefore a perfunctory matter. Follow him to the well. The chances are that you will never drink water again, but you will obtain knowledge. On the brink of that great yawning hole in the ground known as the compound well, whose sides are of stone and whose steps lead you down to the water's edge, behold the "males" of the compound. Divested of the draperies already referred to and in attitudes ranging all the way from the pose of the "Disk Thrower" to that of the most resolute squatter upon a western claim, they are lined up in a row from the top of the steps to the bottom. In the hand of each is a chatty, and one and all are engaged in the offices of the morning bath. And their tub is the well. The brimming chatties are passed up and the empty ones down, legs are curried, feet are scoured, teeth are polished with charcoal and stick, throats are gargled, noses trumpeted, and, in short, the whole man receives such a washing and splashing, such a rubbing and scrubbing, such a polishing and polishing, as leaves nothing to be desired except in connection with the well. This latter consideration, however, is one that does not disturb the Hindoo, who, priding himself upon being externally the cleanest platter in the universe, devotes but little thought to the inside of the dish.

His ablutions and those of his colleagues concluded, he fills his chatty once more from the pure fountain below, lifts it high in the air, throws his head back and with unerring aim pours the crystal libation in one long, steady stream down his open throat, skillfully poised to receive and conduct it to his germ proof interior. This done, his draperies are resumed, and he departs to his work.

Suddenly, as out of a catapult, the sun leaps up from behind the eastern hills, and day is at hand.—Mary Anabel Chamberlain in Atlantic.

His Harmless Candidate.

A Georgia farmer posted this sign on his front gate:

"Candidates Will Pass On. No Time to Talk to 'Em."

One morning his little boy shouted from the garden walk:

"There's one o' them canderdates here, and he says he'll come in anyhow!"

The man looked toward the gate and said:

"Let him in. There's no harm in him. I know him. He's been runnin' ever since the war, jest to be a-runnin'. It runs in his blood, an' he can't help it!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Explanations In Order.

A man whose wife was extremely jealous planned a pleasant surprise for her in the form of a trip to New York to see "The Merry Widow" and wrote a friend in the city to let him know the earliest date for which he could secure seats. The next day when he was away from home the following telegram was delivered there, addressed to him, but opened by his wife:

"Nothing doing with the widow until the 10th. Will that suit you?"

Explanations were demanded.

As to a Courtship.

"He's telling everybody that she is his first love."

"And she?"

"She is confiding to a select few that he is her last chance."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Bread That Intoxicates.

In far eastern Russia, in that region which lies between the sea and the river called Missuri, the humidity of the climate as well as of the soil is remarkable. Vegetation is here distinguished for its wondrous exuberance, to such an extent that the soil never dries up. The result is that the inhabitants in order to prevent putrefaction of the roots sow their corn upon a series of layers of the soil. Nevertheless in certain districts the humidity is so intense that there grows upon the ears of corn a kind of fungous matter made up of micro fungi. As a result of this sporadic excrescence the bread made from the corn in question gives all the results of an overdose of alcohol. In very humid climates the phenomenon is likewise known, though to nothing like the extent of eastern Siberia, where whole districts are affected by this strange kind of "alcoholized bread."

Naturalized.

An Italian went to the civil service commissioners' rooms to be examined for a laborer's position. He answered most of the questions correctly. Finally they asked him if he had ever been naturalized. He seemed a bit puzzled, but at last his face lighted up. "Ah, I know whata you mean. Scratcha de arm. Yes, lasta week."

Then He Stole.

Prudent Swain—If I were to steal a kiss, would it scare you so that you would scream? Timid Maiden—I couldn't. Fright always makes me dumb.

The Other Great Man.

Dr. Russell Cool of California happened to suppress an epidemic of measles while on a vacation trip to Tahiti, and Chief Oreaori gratefully invited him to a banquet in his primitive palace. The south sea potentate and his white guest sat amiably on the floor and dined off roast pig and other native delicacies served on broad leaves and eaten with the fingers. After dinner host and guest adjourned to seats outside the palace, lit long, fat, black cigars and gazed out over the moonlit Pacific. In the eyes of Chief Oreaori, Robert Louis Stevenson, who did so much to improve the condition of the south sea islanders, was the greatest white man that ever lived. The chief related to Dr. Cool many incidents to illustrate Stevenson's kindliness, then asked a score of questions about the health of Stevenson's widow and of his stepchildren. When the last question had been answered there followed a long period of silence. The two friends puffed slowly at their cigars and luxuriously regarded the radiant tropic moonlight glowing upon rustling palm fronds and the silvery ocean. Then Oreaori turned to the doctor and demanded, "Now tell me about John L. Sullivan!"—Harper's Weekly.

Freezing Flesh.

It is a curious fact that, although dwellers in northern climes must have known for ages that a low temperature preserves flesh from putrefaction, it never seems to have struck any one that this natural fact could be turned to artificial advantage until Lord Bacon stuffed the historic chicken with snow and thereby caught a chill which killed him. It is perhaps even more curious that an experiment resulting in the death of one of the most eminent men in the world should not have called any attention to an already well known principle which might have been readily turned to great advantage. As a matter of fact, it was not until the year 1875, 249 years after Lord Bacon's fatal experiment, that freezing was practically employed as a method of preserving flesh. This was the commencement of the frozen meat trade between America and England. Four years later a dry air refrigerator was perfected.

They're All Like This.

A young and pretty schoolteacher once asked her class for an original definition of the word "wife."

"A wife is a rib," said one little girl.

"Wives are guiding stars," said another.

"A comforter," said a third.

"An inspiration," said a fourth.

Altogether the definitions were rather prosy and commonplace, but finally a child of eleven, smiling archly, said:

"A wife is a person for a man to find fault with when things go wrong."

"Good!" cried the pretty teacher, laughing. "Good! That is the best definition of all, the best, the truest!"

But that afternoon on the way home from school the little girl whose definition had so pleased tripped demurely up to the teacher and said:

"Are you going to marry that tall, handsome young man I see you with nearly every night?"

"Yes," said the teacher.

"Well, then, if my definition of a wife was true"—

"Ah, but, dear, with us nothing will ever go wrong. He says so himself."

The Sea Serpent Myth.

It is possible, even probable, that the sea serpent myth started in all good faith. In the southern seas grow the gigantic algae, the largest of which measure from 400 to 600 feet in length. These when rolled on the beach form enormous cables several hundred feet long and as thick as a good sized tree trunk. Such cables washed out to sea by storms may very easily have given rise to the farfamed but yet undiscovered sea serpent.—New York American.

Nice, Easy Job.

The following advertisement recently appeared in an English newspaper: "Man required for demonstration purpose an old English rack (star chamber pattern); would have to be slightly stretched to show how rack worked; man should be short to start with."

Quite Fortunate.

New Girl (timidly)—I s'pose you are a fine cook, mum? Young Mistress—Bless me, no! I don't know anything about it. New Girl (relieved)—Then we'll get along famously, mum. I don't either.—New York Journal.

The Pearl of Great Price.

"Put disposition above beauty," is the advice of a modern sage to the young man who thinks of taking to himself a wife. But it requires such a long time to discover disposition.—Providence Journal.

Conflicting.

"There is safety in numbers," quoted the wise guy.

"And yet we are told that too many cooks spoil the broth," added the simple mug.—Philadelphia Record.

The brave man may fall, but he cannot yield.—Irish Proverb.

Full of It.

Mrs. Caterby—In a short time now we will do all our heating by alcohol. Caterby—That's good. All we'll have to do will be to connect your Uncle Jake to the furnace and range.—Life.

Foolish Question.

"Why, my boy, did you fall in that open coal hole?"

"No; course not. I wuz in here, an' they built a pavement over me."—Illustrated Bits.

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of medicine of known composition. It is but natural that one should have come interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo N. Y., has "taken time by the for lock," as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood-purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for Weak, over-worked brokendown, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's Medicines A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Weak Heart Action

There are certain nerves that control the action of the heart. When they become weak, the heart action is impaired. Short breath, pain around heart, choking sensation, palpitation, fluttering, feeble or rapid pulse, and other distressing symptoms follow. Dr. Miles Heart Cure is a medicine especially adapted to the needs of these nerves and the muscular structure of the heart itself. It is a strengthening tonic that brings speedy relief. Try it.

"For years I suffered with what I thought was stomach trouble, when the doctors told me I had heart trouble. I had tried many remedies, when the Dr. Miles' almanac came into my hands, and I concluded to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I have taken three bottles, and now I am not suffering at all. I am cured and this medicine did it. I write this in the hope that it will attract the attention of others who suffer as I did."

BIG BRIDGE SPAN FELL

600 Feet of New Baltimore and Ohio Structure Collapsed

WATCHMAN WAS HURT

Had the Fall Occurred an Hour Later Many Workmen Would Have Been on the Bridge.

THE CRASH WAS HEARD FOR MILES.

Havre de Grace, Md., Sept. 23.—Throughthecollapsing of a span of nearly 600 feet of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad bridge over the Susquehanna River, at this point, this morning, believed to be due to the use of dynamite by wreckers, twelve loaded coal cars were carried down and the span was totally demolished. William Wilson, of Havre de Grace, a watchman for the American Bridge Company, went down with the wreckage and received injuries which may prove fatal. There were no other casualties.

The bridge, which was erected in the early eighties, was being rebuilt and double-tracked. The accident occurred about 6 o'clock. With a crash that was heard for a distance of several miles, the immense mass fell into the river, completely choking up the eastern channel. An hour later the section that went down would have been swarming with workmen engaged in putting up the great steel beams and girders which enter into its construction.

According to the best estimate that can be obtained from the bridge officials the damage to the work will reach $400,000. This is exclusive of the loss to cars and freight they were carrying.

The span which fell was part of a structure pronounced by experts to be among the strongest of its kind in the world. The bridge covers about 7000 feet, stands 100 feet high and is being built of solid concrete and steel.

While no definite statement that union men are blamed for the destruction wrought is made, officials of the Baltimore & Ohio offer no other explanation; They say the bridge gave no sign of weakening and only some outside force could have caused the collapse.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
stops the cough and heals lungs

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address. Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

PARIS CABBIES.

The War of Words That Comes When They Block Each Other.

There is no more entertaining way to spend an idle hour in Paris than to get into a taxicab and instruct the driver to go along some street where you will be reasonably sure to get into a jam or to bump against another cab. The charm of the experience is, of course, enhanced by your ignorance of what the cabbies say.

Should your driver merely graze the wheels of another cab he will turn on his seat and yell mellifluously at the other driver, who in turn will shout back an assortment of vowels. But the best is a quarrel between two cabbies obstructing each other's way. The conversation, translated as nearly literally as is safe, goes in this wise:

"Sacred name! Why do you?"

"Holly blue! I do not!"

"Stomach on the ground! You have the face of an ox!"

"Blue stomach! Are you in chains?"

"A bas! Name of a dog!"

"Mon Dieu! Name of a pig!"

"Wow (or words to that effect)! Name of a name!"

"A thousand deaths! Name of a name of a name!"

Now you begin to expect some doings. While you have not fully understood, you are satisfied that nothing but pistols and knives will wipe out the insults.

Unfortunately about this time the jam is untangled and you are allowed to drive away, but the other driver yells after you:

"Aha! You are a little piece of brown soap!"

It seems that this expression is the "fighting name" in Paris. Were it not that your cabby owes a duty to you and must convey you to your destination you know by his facial expression that he would climb down and get that other cabby and muss up the city with him.

He contents himself with turning about and making a face in the direction of his enemy and of going through the motion of spitting at him.

Then he says "Yoop!" to the horse, and the war is over.—Chicago Post.

THATCHING.

The Ancient Art in the Low Countries and in England.

Once upon a time two amateur botanists were hunting bog mosses on Exmoor, on the confines of the land of Lorna Doone. About the hour of luncheon they found that their enthusiasm had led them far afield, a good hour and a half from the farmhouse which they had made their temporary headquarters. The only place which yielded promise of food was a shepherd's shack half a mile distant, so thither they went. That the shack, or, rather, its owner, a small, wiry, dark man with curly hair, could offer nothing better than brown bread, which was woefully "clit," or heavy, and raw onions is neither here nor there. The point was that the roof of the shack was artistically thatched with layers of plaited reeds.

"Feyther taught I th' way to do un," explained the shepherd, with an upward jerk of his thumb toward the roof. "An' his feyther taught 'im avore that, an' his feyther avore that, an' back an' back twill nobody can think."

"A hereditary art evidently," said one of the moss hunters to his companion. "But I never saw thatches like these outside of the Low Countries. Safe bet that this fellow is of Dutch descent." Then he said to the man of Devon, "And what is your name, may I ask?"

"Well," replied the shepherd, "most volk call I Van, but ma right name be Henry Van Torp. They do say that ma gurt-grandfeyther were a-vitin' against England an' were took prisoner an' married a Devon girl an' settled 'ereabout"—he indicated the southward sweep of the moor—"but these be a lot of voolish tales to ma thinkin'."—Craftsman.

His Last Question.

The counsel for the opposition had been bullying the witness for an hour or more when he finally asked:

"Is it true that there are traces of insanity in your family?"

"It would be folly to deny it," replied the witness. "My great-grandfather, who was studying for the ministry, gave it up to become a lawyer."

His Case.

Mrs. Spenders—Oh, John, I saw a sign in Bargain & Co.'s window today that reminded me of what I am most in—

Mr. Spenders—(interrupting hastily)—I, too, saw a sign in their window that reminded me of what I am. It read, "Reduced to 49 cents."—New York Journal.

Two Styles.

Thug—I'm going to land you one de mug, see?

Professor—Er! How surprising it is that the clarity of expression so necessary to literary diction may at times be attained by the veriest paucity of those descriptive elements which have so enriched our language!—Chicago News.

OPEN SECRETS.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken the many users of his medicines into his full confidence. Thus too he has absolutely and completely removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them REMEDIES OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

Dr Pierce's medicines are now in a class all by themselves—being absolutely and in every sense Non-secret.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R.V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this booklet it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, and with the use of specially designed chemical apparatus, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health.

The exact proportion of the several ingredients used in these medicines, as well as the working formula and peculiar processes, apparatus and appliances employed in their manufacture, are withheld from publicity that Dr. Pierce's proprietary rights may not be infringed and trespassed upon by unprincipled imitators and those who may be piratically inclined.

Dr. John Fyfe, of Saugatuck, Conn., Editor of the Department of Therapeutics in THE ECLECTIC REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) one of the chief ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription: "A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator and always favors a condition which makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system, cannot fail to be of great usefulness and of the utmost importance to the general practitioner of medicine."

"Helonias more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent."

"The following are among the leading indications for Helonias: Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys: menorrhagia, ("flooding") due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhea, arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and an anemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensation in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is rich in all the medical properties of Unicorn root, or Helonias.

The Pirates.

The Chicago News fails to name the hero of this story, but has it that the visitor to the home of a well known Hoosier State author found his three youngsters romping in the hallway.

"What are you playing, boys?" he inquired.

"We are playing pirates," elucidated the smallest.

"Pirates? Why, how can you play pirates in Indiana? There are no seas bordering on this state."

"Oh, we don't need any seas. We are literary pirates, like pa."

And five minutes later a chorus of yells from behind the barn told that the hand that wields the pen can also wield the shingle.

Outside of His Practice.

"All that is the matter with you, sir," said the eminent physician after a thorough examination, "is lack of nutrition. You don't eat enough."

"I eat all I can hold, doctor," said the attenuated caller.

"Then you need to have your capacity enlarged, and that's a case for a surgeon. Five dollars, please. Good morning."—Chicago Tribune.

Overstud

Books are pleasant [illegible] if by being overstudious we [illegible] our health and spoil our good [illegible] of the best pieces we have [illegible] over it. I, for my part, [illegible] who think that no fruit [illegible] from them can recompense [illegible] loss.—Montaigne.

Why They Objected.

"No," said the fireman, who represented the truck company that had refused to work with a colored truckman, "there is no race prejudice in it. But we certainly hate to work with a man whose face will look just as clean [illegible] way home from a long fire fight [illegible] did when we started, while we [illegible] all look smudgy."—Judge's Library.

See the Sights of the Town.

Reporter—Have you seen the sights of the town?

Sir Reginald—Yes. All morning I sat in the hotel front window watching them walk by.—Lippincott's.

The King's Cock Crower.

In the good old time there was an English court official known as the king's cock crower. It seems a strange office. Why did the king require a cock crower, and why could not the common barn door variety serve his majesty's purpose? The reason, as you shall see, was that the barn door variety cannot be depended upon for times and hours, and he has never been persuaded to observe Lent. Now, this was a pious custom and a religious duty. All through Lent the king's cock crower crowed instead of calling the hours of the night in the palace. He began on Ash Wednesday, when he entered the hall in which the king's supper was served, and then crowed the hour in the presence of the royal party. The meaning of the custom is obvious. It was only one of the many ways in which the history of the Christian religion was brought home to the minds of people before the reading of the gospel in the vernacular. The office was continued down to the year 1822.—London Queen.

Naturalized.

An Italian went to the civil service commissioners' rooms to be examined for a laborer's position. He answered most of the questions correctly. Finally they asked him if he had ever been naturalized. He seemed a bit puzzled, but at last his face lighted up. "Ah, I know whata you mean. Scratcha de arm. Yes, lasta week."

Then He Stole.

Prudent Swain—If I were to steal a kiss, would it scare you so that you would scream? Timid Maiden—I couldn't. Fright always makes me dumb.

Driven From Home.

"Did you hear that the daughter of that rich man in the next street had been driven from home?"

"No! When did it happen?"

"Just after she got into the carriage."

No Wonder.

Jack—Yes, poor John may have had his faults, but his heart was on the right side."

Wagge—Is it possible? No wonder he died.

Indigestion

[illegible] symptom of, and not [illegible] We think of Dyspepsia, [illegible] as real diseases, yet they are symptoms [illegible] of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

THE WOMAN WHO COUGHED.

Catarrh had nearly ruined me. It had eaten away the partition in my nose; produced Asthma, Bronchitis, Rheumatism; ruined my stomach; in fact, gone all through my system. Then Grip finished me. I was a wreck; took cold at nothing; and coughed day and night. The doctors dosed me with opium and quinine. No good. Cough "cures"? Bah! Then Brazilian Balm renovated me. Killed every germ. Took 10 $1.00 bottles. Now I'm like a girl of 18.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

NUMBER ONE.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Philadelphia and Allegheny counties, and to give the General Assembly power to establish a separate court in Philadelphia county, with criminal and miscellaneous jurisdiction.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly met, That the following amendments to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same are hereby, proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section six of article five be amended by striking out the said section and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas, shall be vested in one court of common pleas in each of said counties, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of each of the said courts shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in each of said courts may be, by law, increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first Monday of January succeeding its adoption.

Section 2. That article five, section eight, be amended by making an addition thereto so that the same shall read as follows:

Section 8. The said courts in the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny respectively shall, from time to time, in turn, detail one or more of their judges to hold the courts of oyer and terminer and the courts of quarter sessions of the peace of said counties, in such manner as may be directed by law: Provided, That in the county of Philadelphia the General Assembly shall have power to establish a separate court, consisting of not more than four judges, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases and in such other matters as may be provided by law.

NUMBER TWO.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, allowing counties, cities, boroughs, townships, school districts, or other municipal or incorporated districts, to increase their indebtedness.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That section eight, article nine, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, reading as follows:—

"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein; nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election, in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation," be amended, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article of said Constitution, so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed ten per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein; nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election, in such manner as shall be provided by law.

NUMBER THREE.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing amendments to sections eight and twenty-one of article four, sections eleven and twelve of article five, sections two, three, and fourteen of article eight, section one of article twelve, and sections two and seven of article fourteen, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and providing a schedule for carrying the amendments into effect.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following are proposed as amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment One—To Article Four, Section Eight.

Section 2. Amend section eight of article four of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—

"He shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth and an Attorney General during pleasure, a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other officers of the Commonwealth as he is or may be authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint; he shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen, in offices to which he may appoint, during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session; he shall have power to fill any vacancy that may happen, during the recess of the Senate, in the office of Auditor General, State Treasurer, Secretary of Internal Affairs or Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a judicial office, or in any other elective office which he is or may be authorized to fill; if the vacancy shall happen during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy; but in any such case of vacancy, in an elective office, a person shall be chosen to said office on the next election day appropriate to such office, according to the provisions of this Constitution, unless the vacancy shall happen within three calendar months immediately preceding such election, in which case the election for said office shall be held at the second succeeding general election. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall be entered on the journal," so as to read as follows:—

He shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth and an Attorney General during pleasure, a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other officers of the Commonwealth as he is or may be authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint; he shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen, in offices to which he may appoint, during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session; he shall have power to fill any vacancy that may happen, during the recess of the Senate, in the office of Auditor General, State Treasurer, Secretary of Internal Affairs or Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a judicial office, or in any other elective office which he is or may be authorized to fill; if the vacancy shall happen during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy; but in any such case of vacancy, in an elective office, a person shall be chosen to said office on the next election day appropriate to such office, according to the provisions of this Constitution, unless the vacancy shall happen within two calendar months immediately preceding such election day, in which case the election for said office shall be held on the second succeeding election day appropriate to such office. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall be entered on the journal.

Amendment Two—To Article Four, Section Twenty-one.

Section 3. Amend section twenty-one of article four, which reads as follows:—

"The term of the Secretary of Internal Affairs shall be four years; of the Auditor General three years; and of the State Treasurer two years. These officers shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State at general elections. No person elected to the office of Auditor General or State Treasurer shall be capable of holding the same office for two consecutive terms," so as to read:—

The terms of the Secretary of Internal Affairs, the Auditor General, and the State Treasurer shall each be four years; and they shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State at general elections; but a State Treasurer, elected in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, shall serve for three years, and his successors shall be elected at the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and in every fourth year thereafter. No person elected to the office of Auditor General or State Treasurer shall be capable of holding the same office for two consecutive terms.

Amendment Three—To Article Five, Section Eleven.

Section 4. Amend section eleven of article five, which reads as follows:—

"Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, justices of the peace or aldermen shall be elected in the several wards, districts, boroughs and townships at the time of the election of constables, by the qualified electors thereof, in such manner as shall be directed by law, and shall be commissioned by the Governor for a term of five years. No township, ward, district or borough shall elect more than two justices of the peace or aldermen without the consent of a majority of the qualified electors within such township, ward or borough; no person shall be elected to such office unless he shall have resided within the township, borough, ward or district for one year next preceding his election. In cities containing over fifty thousand inhabitants, not more than one alderman shall be elected in each ward or district," so as to read:—

Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, justices of the peace or aldermen shall be elected in the several wards, districts, boroughs or townships, by the qualified electors thereof, at the municipal election, in such manner as shall be directed by law, and shall be commissioned by the Governor for a term of six years. No township, ward, district or borough shall elect more than two justices of the peace or aldermen without the consent of a majority of the qualified electors within such township, ward or borough; no person shall be elected to such office unless he shall have resided within the township, borough, ward or district for one year next preceding his election. In cities containing over fifty thousand inhabitants, not more than one alderman shall be elected in each ward or district.

Amendment Four—To Article Five, Section Twelve.

Section 5. Amend section twelve of article five of the Constitution, which reads as follows:—

"In Philadelphia there shall be established, for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be five years, and they shall be elected on general ticket by the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected when more than one are to be chosen; they shall be compensated only by fixed salaries, to be paid by said county; and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as is now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes, not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or conferring political duties, as may be made by law. In Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished," so as to read as follows:—

In Philadelphia there shall be established, for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be six years, and they shall be elected on general ticket at the municipal election, by the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected when more than one are to be chosen; they shall be compensated only by fixed salaries, to be paid by said county; and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as is now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes, not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or conferring political duties, as may be made by law. In Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished.

Amendment Five—To Article Eight, Section Two.

Section 6. Amend section two of article eight, which reads as follows:—

"The general election shall be held annually on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto," so as to read:—

The general election shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each even numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto: Provided, That such election shall always be held in an even-numbered year.

Amendment Six—To Article Eight, Section Three.

Section 7. Amend section three of article eight, which reads as follows:—

"All elections for city, ward, borough and township officers, for regular terms of service, shall be held on the third Tuesday of February," so as to read:—

All judges elected by the electors of the State at large may be elected at either a general or municipal election, as circumstances may require. All elections for judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and for county, city, ward, borough, and township officers, for regular terms of service, shall be held on the municipal election day; namely, the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each odd-numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto: Provided, That such election shall always be held in an odd-numbered year.

Amendment Seven—To Article Eight, Section Fourteen.

Section 8. Amend section fourteen of article eight, which reads as follows:—

"District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen annually by the citizens. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one clerk. The first election board for any new district shall be selected, and vacancies in election boards filled, as shall be provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service," so as to read:—

District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen biennially, by the citizens at the municipal election; but the General Assembly may require said boards to be appointed in such manner as it may by law provide. Laws regulating the appointment of said boards may be enacted to apply to cities only: Provided, That such laws be uniform for cities of the same class. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one clerk. The first election board for any new district shall be selected, and vacancies in election boards filled, as shall be provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record, or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service.

Amendment Eight—To Article Twelve, Section One.

Section 9. Amend section one, article twelve, which reads as follows:—

"All officers, whose selection is not provided for in this Constitution, shall be elected or appointed as may be directed by law," so as to read:—

All officers, whose selection is not provided for in this Constitution, shall be elected or appointed as may be directed by law: Provided, That elections of State officers shall be held on a general election day, and elections of local officers shall be held on a municipal election day, except when, in either case, special elections may be required to fill unexpired terms.

Amendment Nine—To Article Fourteen, Section Two.

Section 10. Amend section two of article fourteen, which reads as follows:—

"County officers shall be elected at the general elections and shall hold their offices for the term of three years, beginning on the first Monday of January next after their election, and until their successors shall be duly qualified; all vacancies not otherwise provided for, shall be filled in such manner as may be provided by law," so as to read:—

County officers shall be elected at the municipal elections and shall hold their offices for the term of four years, beginning on the first Monday of January next after their election, and until their successors shall be duly qualified; all vacancies not otherwise provided for, shall be filled in such manner as may be provided by law.

Amendment Ten—To Article Fourteen, Section Seven.

Section 11. Amend section seven, article fourteen, which reads as follows:—

"Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county where such officers are chosen, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and every third year thereafter; and in the election of said officers each qualified elector shall vote for no more than two persons, and the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected; any casual vacancy in the office of county commissioner or county auditor shall be filled, by the court of common pleas of the county in which such vacancy shall occur, by the appointment of an elector of the proper county who shall have voted for the commissioner or auditor whose place is to be filled," so as to read:—

Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county where such officers are chosen, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven and every fourth year thereafter; and in the election of said officers each qualified elector shall vote for no more than two persons, and the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected; any casual vacancy in the office of county commissioner or county auditor shall be filled, by the court of common pleas of the county in which such vacancy shall occur, by the appointment of an elector of the proper county who shall have voted for the commissioner or auditor whose place is to be filled.

Schedule for the Amendments.

Section 12. That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the Constitution of the Commonwealth, and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared, that—

In the case of officers elected by the people, all terms of office fixed by act of Assembly at an odd number of years shall each be lengthened one year, but the Legislature may change the length of the term, provided the terms for which such officers are elected shall always be for an even number of years.

The above extension of official terms shall not affect officers elected at the general election of one thousand nine hundred and eight; nor any city, ward, borough, township, or election division officers, whose terms of office, under existing law, end in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

In the year one thousand nine hundred and ten the municipal election shall be held on the third Tuesday of February, as heretofore; but all officers chosen at that election to an office the regular term of which is two years, and also all election officers and assessors chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven. All officers chosen at that election to offices the term of which is now four years, or is made four years by the operation of these amendments or this schedule, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen. All justices of the peace, magistrates, and aldermen, chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen. After the year nineteen hundred and ten, and until the Legislature shall otherwise provide, all terms of city, ward, borough, township, and election division officers shall begin on the first Monday of December in an odd-numbered year.

All city, ward, borough, and township officers holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of December of that year.

All judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and also all county officers, holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

The Other Great Man.

Dr. Russell Cool of California happened to suppress an epidemic of measles while on a vacation trip to Tahiti, and Chief Oreaori gratefully invited him to a banquet in his primitive palace. The south sea potentate and his white guest sat amiably on the floor and dined off roast pig and other native delicacies served on broad leaves and eaten with the fingers. After dinner host and guest adjourned to seats outside the palace, lit long, fat, black cigars and gazed out over the moonlit Pacific. In the eyes of Chief Oreaori, Robert Louis Stevenson, who did so much to improve the condition of the south sea islanders, was the greatest white man that ever lived. The chief related to Dr. Cool many incidents to illustrate Stevenson's kindliness, then asked a score of questions about the health of Stevenson's widow and of his stepchildren. When the last question had been answered there followed a long period of silence. The two friends puffed slowly at their cigars and luxuriously regarded the radiant tropic moonlight glowing upon rustling palm fronds and the silvery ocean. Then Oreaori turned to the doctor and demanded, "Now tell me about John L. Sullivan!"—Harper's Weekly.

Freezing Flesh.

It is a curious fact that, although dwellers in northern climes must have known for ages that a low temperature preserves flesh from putrefaction, it never seems to have struck any one that this natural fact could be turned to artificial advantage until Lord Bacon stuffed the historic chicken with snow and thereby caught a chill which killed him. It is perhaps even more curious that an experiment resulting in the death of one of the most eminent men in the world should not have called any attention to an already well known principle which might have been readily turned to great advantage. As a matter of fact, it was not until the year 1875, 249 years after Lord Bacon's fatal experiment, that freezing was practically employed as a method of preserving flesh. This was the commencement of the frozen meat trade between America and England. Four years later a dry air refrigerator was perfected.

Thought He Had Died.

A prominent member of a German-American society told a story about a German friend of his who was taken ill. For many days the German was close to death, but after a time he showed improvement in condition. The doctor told the German's wife that her husband might have anything to eat that he liked.

The German expressed a desire for limburger cheese, and the wife, being a generous woman and pleased at the improvement and in order that her husband might have a nibble at any time he had a taste for it, put some cheese in every room in the house. It is easy to imagine the aroma.

The next morning the doctor called at the house, and as soon as he opened the door he asked:

"When did he die?"—Hartford Post.

How It Works Out.

"I never tell funny stories in my speeches," remarked Senator Sorghum.

"The audience always enjoys them."

"Yes. A man hears you tell a funny story, and he thinks it is so good he tries to remember it. He regards you as a first rate fellow and feels thankful to you for giving him a new one. Then he tells it to the first friend he meets, and as he isn't a good story teller the friend doesn't laugh. Then he tries it on the blase hotel clerk and the stolid drug store man and several others, and by the time he gets home he concludes you have passed him a gold brick. He not only refuses to vote for you, but tells all his friends he doesn't think it's dignified to keep in office a man who tells funny stories."—Washington Star.

The Horse's Power of Smell.

The horse will leave musty hay untouched in his bin, however hungry. He will not drink of water objectionable to his questioning sniff or from a bucket which some odor makes offensive, however thirsty. His intelligent nostril will widen, quiver and query over the daintiest bit offered by the fairest of hands, with coaxings that would make a mortal shut his eyes and swallow a nauseous mouthful at a gulp. A mare is never satisfied by either sight or whinny that her colt is really her own until she has a certain nasal certificate to the fact. A blind horse, now living, will not allow the approach of any stranger without showing signs of anger not safely to be disregarded. The distinction is evidently made by his sense of smell and at a considerable distance. Blind horses, as a rule, will gallop wildly about a pasture without striking the surrounding fence. The sense of smell informs them of its proximity.—Horse and Stable.

BRIEF MENTION

Short Items of Local Interest Gathered By The Way Side

—In cleaning house do not forget the rummage sale October 1.

—Pennsylvania can be counted among the dry states at the present time.

—Several workmen were busy last week laying planks on the High street bridge.

—Don't forget to save up something for the rummage for the benefit of the hospital.

—John Chapham, the oldest citizen of Mifflinburg and also of Union county, died Tuesday night in his ninety-fifth year.

—A band composed of eight foreigners held forth in Bellefonte Friday afternoon and evening, discoursing some excellent music on the streets.

—On Friday M. R. Johnson laid a new flag stone pavement at the property of James I. McClure on the corner of Spring and Logan streets.

—The past few mornings have been cool and foggy, but later in the day the sun comes out very hot making a very disagreeable kind of weather.

—Some farmers have already commenced to husk corn. A load which passed through Bellefonte Wednesday afternoon appeared to be of a very good quality.

—The mail and Philadelphia news papers were delayed on Friday on account of a car of burning charcoal near Harrisburg, which blocked the tracks for over three hours.

—During the week repairs have been made at the spring. The fence has been raised and reset and a new concrete curb has been input along both the outside and inside of the pavement.

—The new concrete walks about the court house are about completed. The new walks are quite an improvement and add greatly to the appearance of the court house surroundings. M. R. Johnson, the contractor, has put up a good substantial job.

—The boys and others who have been in the habit of getting in over the fence at the athletic grounds had better take warning and make themselves scarce at future games. Two policemen will be on the grounds and every boy discovered in an attempt to get onto the field without paying will be dealth with as becomes his sneaking act.

—We are in receipt of the official program of the convention of agents of the Alonzo O. Bliss Medical company which was held in Washington, D. C. the fore part of the week. The program was sent with the compliments of Dr. A. W. Hafer who attended the convention. Several pleasure and sight-seeing trips were features of the meeting.

—Frank Smith, colored, who conducted a shoe-shining stand in the P & E passenger station at Lock Haven, was killed a short distance below the station Friday night. He had jumped on an east bound freight to ride to near his home and in getting off the freight alighted in front of a west bound passger train. Death was almost instant.

—Owing to the fact that the dry weather has forced wild animals and big game to leave their haunts in the mountains and go to the Juniata river for water, Game Warden Jamesuloff, of Lewistown, has found it necessary to use strenuous methods to protect deer against dogs. Twenty-eight deer and eight bear have been reported seen at the water's edge drinking within the past week.

—Wednesday October 7 has been decided upon as children's day at the big Centre County Fair and on this day all children under 16 years of age will be admitted free of charge. A special program for the amusement of children has been arranged and everything possible will be done to make it a day of pleasure for them all. Parents who intend taking their children should keep this in mind, and Wednesday will be just as big a day at the fair as any other.

—David Wylen, of Reedsville, had the first finger of his right hand badly injured Thursday afternoon about four o'clock while helping his cousin Wm. Summers to thresh buckwheat near Mileseburg. Mr. Wylen walked the entire distance from Reedsville, about 33 miles, and arrived at his cousin's at two o'clock. He was feeding the machine and while so doing crowded it too much, causing it to clog. He called to one of the men to shut off the power and thinking the cylinder had stopped he reached in to pull out a bunch of straw with the result that his hand was caught and the finger badly torn. Dr. Harris dressed the injured member, but it may yet be necessary to amputate it.

—Jack o'lanterns have made their appearance.

—The more oil that is poured on the the political machinery machinery the more its seems to squeak.

—William Miller, has accepted a position with a Chicago firm and is working for them in Snow Shoe this week.

—The horse sale at the Haag hotel on Saturday was largely attended and the bidding was lively, fair prices being obtained for the stock sold.

—R. A. Hendershot has opened general blacksmith and repair shop in the building opposite the water works and is now prepared to any kind of work along that line.

—In Saturday's game at Orvis Snow Shoe defeated the Mountaineers by the score of 4-2. Howard defeated Mill Hall 9 5. The season will close on Wednesday.

—The scarlet fever conditions at Howard are improving. No new cases have been reported during the past few days and those who were ill are improving and out of danger.

— The Allegheny Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church met in its sixty-eight convention in the First Lutheran church of Tyrone Thursday evening. The sessions continued until Monday.

—A number of the members of the Epworth League took a straw ride to the home of Van Jodon at High Bank Friday evening. A potato roast was a feature of the evening at the Jodon home and a very enjoyable time is reported.

—Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker will give a reception at her residence on North Allegheny street Thursday evening October first, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock for the benefit of the St. John's Catholic church. An offering will be received.

—Pennsylvania railroad detectives have begun a crusade against dishonest employes. Within the last week they arrested nine conductors, flagmen and brakemen on the Cresson and Clearfield division on charges of robbing freight cars —On Thursday Joseph Diehl who, had the disposition of the large Reynolds peach crop shipped the last carload. The total crop was almost twelve thousand bushels and the gathering was a large job, the men making good wages.

—The woods were full of both young and old on Sunday in search of chestnuts The dry weather has caused the burrs to open and the chestnuts are falling. The nuts are quite plenty and are of a fair quality. Very few have yet appeared for market.

—Rev. Armstrong of Warriormark was present at the regular meeting of the Centre lodge I. O. O. F. Thursday evening and made a very appropriate address to the members and those who received an initiatory degree during the evening.

—Recently some one with malicious intend entered the electric light plant at State College and poured quartz sand in the principal bearings of the large Westinghouse engine. The trouble was not discovered until the engine was started and considerable damage done.

—George Riggles, 28 years old, of Glen Union, was fatally injured on the Pennsylvania railroad at Lock Haven Saturday evening. It is supposed that he fell from a freight train and was run over by several of the cars. Normal students found the badly mangled form.

—In the closing game of a series of five with the Lock Haven team Snow Shoe won their third game on Friday, the score being 5-1. The game was one of the most exciting of the season and the Lock Haven team very cheerfully acknowledged Snow Shoe their superiors.

—The venerable James Holmes, an old veteran of the Civil war, is quite ill at his home at State College. His illness dates back to the Veteran's picnic in Bellefonte, when he walked from the station to the grounds, causing over-exertion, from which he has been confined to bed ever since.

—Special services for the laboring classes were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning when the pastor Rev. J. Allison Platts preached a very appropriate sermon to a large congregation. The discourse was helpful to all and should prove an inspiration to every working man, whether he toils mentally or physically. Special music was a feature of the services.

—The Bellefonte Central train ran into a drove of cows a short distance west of Coleville on Wednesday evening and two of the animals were killed. The engine of the train was derailed but remained upright. No damage was done but it took considerable time to get the engine on the rails again and the train was quite late when it reached Bellefonte.

—An exchange says: Clarence E. Delige, colored, and a resident of Centre county, was on Saturday refused a license in Clearfield county county, to marry Miss Maud V. Henderson, white, of Chester Hill. This is the second time within three years that Delige's matrimonial moves have pumped into a circumstances that did not meet his approval, both for the same reason.

—Hunters are requested to send us reports of any success they may have during the season.

—There was a very heavy frost Wednesday morning but hardly any damage was done as a dense fog kept the rays of the sun off until the frost was gone.

—During the thunder storm Monday afternoon a large bank barn in the east end of Lock Haven was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. There were about 60 tons of hay in it at the time which was partly insured The barn was worth $2000 and was insured for $1000.

—Space will not permit to tell all about Hadley's moving pictures which will be at the Garman opera house Saturday night, but a general outline of the excellent new pictures is given elsewhere. Look over the long list of interesting things that you can have the pleasure of seeing Saturday night.

—Over 400 additional men were put to work in the steel mills in Harrisburg and vicinity this morning, orders having been issued to start the puddle mill of the Chesapeake nail works and put another mill of the Central Iron and Steel company on night turn. Americans were given the preference.

—Frank Eckenroth is engaged in painting the steeple of the Presbyterian church and it was an interesting sight Tuesday afternoon to watch him ascend to the top and arrange his rigging as he climbed. Many persons were out watching him as he mounted to the dizzy height and went about his work apparently unconcerned.

—The twenty-eight annual convention of the Pennsylvania Volunteer Firemen's association will be held at Shamokin on October 8 and it is expected that about eight thousand firemen will participate in the parade. The town is being decorated to receive the fire laddies and a gala time is anticipated. The Undine company of this place will be strongly represented at the convention.

—On Thursday checks aggregating $661. for the Bellefonte hospital were received from Mr. Shoemaker's men at Buffalo and Brockwayville and more is expected from DuBois. This shows a very generous spirit on the part of these men and should be an incentive to Bellefonters to contribute more liberally to this local institution and swell the fund for the completion of the new building.

—John E. Dubbs, route agent of the Adams Express company, who has been located at Huntingdon, but who was recently transferred to Trenton, N. J., was surprised by a number of the employes of the company Sunday night before leaving for his new location. Eighteen of the agents on his division called on him and gave him as an appreciation of their esteem a handsome leather rocking chair.

—The farmers who planted their late potatoes early are the ones who are shaking hands with themselves at present for they will have a better crop than those who planted at the usual time. In many instances the crop is hardly worth raising and it is predicted that the tubers will bring a fancy price before next spring. The crop was not only a failure in this state but in New York there is also a shortage. A carload was received by the local merchants on Monday and already the prices that usually prevail in the spring are being ask.

—The Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad Company Thursday announced a 5 per cent. increase in the wages of its employes. This is a restoration of half the cut of 10 per cent. made February 1, and the company says the balance of the reduction will be made good as soon as conditions warrant it. The Buffalo and Susquehanna and also the Buffalo Rochester and Pittsburg Railroads announce that hereafter they will pay every two weeks. The change is made to conform with the New York State law which becomes effective October 1st.

—The Jewish New Year began Friday evening at sunset, and until sunset Saturday evening was observed as a holiday. This marks the beginning of the year 5669, the count commencing from the creation of the world. Unlike others, the advent of the Jewish New Year is not celebrated with the tooting of horns, ringing of bells, etc, but is an occasion for meditation, self-analysis and introspection. It is a time for a mental inventory of the life and deeds of the past year and an occasion for the ordination of the course for the year to come. With due respect for the holiday the Jewish stores in towns were closed from 6 o'clock Friday until 6 o'clock Saturday evening.

—On Wednesday H. R. Ruzer's lease on the Petriken Hall expired and the popular moving picture show which he has conducted as the Theatorium will on Thursday be assumed by T. Clayton Brown. Mr. Brown has secured a new Powers machine of the latest model and it will require several days to install this machine and make some other changes in the way of the booth, screen, etc. The name will be changed from the "Theatorium" to the "Scenic" which will distinguish it from the present picture show. It is expected that all the important changes will be made by Saturday and on Saturday night the new Scenic will be open to the public.

Bailey will be glad to learn that he is coming so near his former home and wish him unbounded success in his new field of labor.

Dr. Hafer Honored.

While attending the medical convention in Washington last week Dr. A. W. Hafer was caught in the swirl with some of the big fish and had some experiences that will always be a cause for pleasant recollections. The International Fishery Congress was also meeting in Washington at the time and the delegates to the two conventions were sight seeing when the doctor met one of the members of the fishery congress who enjoined him to become a member. He was taken in as a member and received his card which admitted him to all the receptions and sessions that had been planned. Thursday afternoon he attended a reception at the White House given by the president. As none of the reception committee were acquainted with him he had to introduce himself to the president, who gave him a hearty handshake when told he was from Bellefonte, Pa. In the evening Dr. Hafer attended a reception at the residence of Hon. Oscar S. Straus, Secretary of Commerce and Labor. When the doctor was admitted to the fishery congress he had no idea that all this was in store for him.

An Indian Sanitarium.

"Ze-Bo-Nah," an Indian princess, 25 years old, and a daughter of a chieftain of the New York Mohawk tribe, has started a tuberculosis camp of her own along the Susquehanna river several miles below Williamsport.

It is Pennsylvania's quaintest consumption sanitarium. And it an effective little institution, though the number of patients is limited to two or three at a time. It is a single tent, packed away snugly in the fringe of forest along the river, and it is as still as the Sahara desert.

"Ze-Bo Nah" gives her patients the Indian outdoor treatment. She makes them fish, row, swim, walk, and do everything that helps to make them robust. Then, by way of emphasizing primitive methods, she keeps them sleeping under the canopy of the trees after night. She treats them to herbs of her own selection and to some of the rarest of Indian delicacies.

The cured consumptives number 40, and all have been restored to health through her personal care. She finds her daily delight in fighting the disease that has claimed so many of her own race, and that also has such a tight grip on the paleface.

Mary McCloskey.

Mary McCloskey, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McCloskey, died at her parent's home near Beech Creek Sunday night at eleven o'clock of tuberculosis, following an attack of pneumonia. She was aged 17 years, 8 months and 3 days.

The deceased was an exceptionally bright girl and a member of the Beech Creek borough high school class and many regrets are expressed among her friends and companions at her untimely death, for she was a young lady of much promise. She is survived by her parents and two brothers, Nevin and Glenn.

The funeral was held from the home of her parents Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock. Rev. George F. Boggs, of Williamsport, conducted the services and was assisted by Rev, R. S. Taylor of Howard. Rev. Boggs was pastor of the Methodist church at the time the young lady united with the church.

Wm. L. McKibben

William L. McKibben died Saturday morning at 8.50 o'clock at the home of his son D. A. McKibben, in Salona, from paralysis, aged 68 years. He was born and reared in Lamar township, Clinton county on the McKibben homestead farm, now owned by L. M. Holloway. He was one of the reliable citizens of the township and was a successful farmer. Since last spring he has lived a retired life with his son in Salona where he died.

He is survived by two sons, D. A., of Salona; Huston H., of Porter, and one daughter, Miss Kate at home. His wife died a number of years ago. One brother, Joseph A. McKibben, of Salona, and one sister, Mrs. James G. Hayes, of Clintondale, also survive.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock from the home. Interment at Cedar Hill.

Heichel—Reese.

A verry quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's stepfather, J. H. Currey, in Liberty township, Wednesday forenoon at 10:30 o'clock when James B. Heichel and Miss Rosetta Reese were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Rollin S. Taylor, of Howard, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The newly married couple went to housekeeping the same day in a home already furnished.

Installation of Officers

At the bi-monthly meeting of the Bellefonte encampment No. 72 I. O. O. F. in their rooms Monday evening the following officers were installed for the ensuing six months term:

High Priest, Charles E. Wetzel.
Chief Patriarch, Wm. Owens.
Senior Warden, Harry Smith.
Junior Warden, W. H. Steele.
Scribe, M. A. Altenderfer.
Treasurer, Isaac Miller.
Outside Sentinel, Isaac Miller.
Inside " C. L. Ray.

Second " Morris Miller.
Third " Herbert Miller.
Fourth " S. H. Griffith.
First Guard of Tent, J. Stuart Fleck.
Second " Harry Clevenstine.
Trustees, H. B. Pontius, Charles E. Wetzel, Sigmund Joseph.

Following the installation of officers a smoker was participated in by all the members present and the evening proved a very pleasant one to all.

Mrs. Bessie Heaton.

Mrs. Bessie Heaton, wife of William Heaton of Houserville, died at the Bellefonte hospital Tuesday evening of septicemia. She was brought to be hospital on September ninth and underwent a serious operation. Following the operation she rallied and there were hopes of her recovery. Later she took worse and her death ensued at the time mentioned.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Huey and was born at Fillmore, being aged only 23 years, 5 months and 5 days. Surviving her are her husband, father and mother and a number of brothers and sisters. The remains were taken to the home of her parents where the funeral was held Thursday afternoon, interment being made at the Meyers cemetery.

Trout Stops Train.

Traffic was tied up on the Shamokin division of the Reading Railway for several hours Saturday when a locomotive drawing a northbound freight train became stalled near East Mahanoy Junction.

Investigation showed that the pipes carrying the water from the tank to the engine were clogged with brook trout. Further investigation revealed a lot more of them swimming about in the water tank.

The water which supplies the locomotives at East Mahanoy Junction is drawn from a big trout pond, which is quite low on account of the drought.

Samuel Sheffer Injured.

While at his work at the Bellefonte furnace on Friday Samuel Sheffer met with an accident that resulted in a broken leg and a badly bruised foot. Mr. Sheffer is employed at the furance quarry and about 2 30 o'clock that afternoon while riding from the shop to the quarry he fell from one of the cars. The wheel of the car passed over his right leg, breaking it just below the knee and badly bruising the foot. The injured man was taken to his home on Curtin street and and his injuries were dressed. He has suffered a great deal of pain from the wounds but otherwise is getting along as well as could be expected.

Brookes—Williams

William S. Brookes and Miss Velta Williams, both of Curtin, were married on Wednesday in Williamsport by Rev. W. C. Robins. Mr. Brookes is the station agent of the Bald Eagle Valley railroad at that place and one of Curtin's prominent young men. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bion H. Williams. Following the wedding the couple went from Williamsport to Buffalo and Niagara Falls and on their return will reside Curtin. They have the best wishes of thier many friends.
